National Activities for Supporting Crime Statistics Capacity Building

Dorji Phuntsho
National Statistics Bureau
Bhutan
Overview

National Activities to Support Crime Statistics

- Follow international classifications & definitions
- Build database
- To have focal persons for relevant agencies
- Trainings & workshops for crime statistics data producing agencies
National Activities to Support Crime Statistics (contd.)

Follow International Classifications & Definitions

- National crime classifications and definitions should be in line with international standards
- Sort out data duplications
- Address data gaps based on core minimum international set
- Advocate national government on the usage of crime statistics for policy implementation including budget allocation
National Activities to Support Crime Statistics (contd.)

Build Database

- To build database for all the relevant agencies
- Address the data collection time frame
- Easy reporting system
- Dedicated section in agencies
- Data confidentiality need to be addressed
- Obligate each relevant agency to report crime statistics
National Activities to Support Crime Statistics (contd.)

To have Focal Persons for Relevant Agencies

To have focal person for each data producers (police, courts, prosecutions, prison, ACC, NGOs etc.)
National Activities to Support Crime Statistics (contd.)

Trainings & Workshops for Crime Statistics Data Producing Agencies

- To build capacity of agencies in collecting crime statistics
- Conduct training workshops with focal persons
- Discuss the changes and coverage of the recent data collected by agencies
- Visit offices to understand the data collection and compilation methods followed
- Address the timely data collections by agencies
- Come up with national action plan & incorporate it within the national statistics development strategy
Thank You