The workshop in Spanish aims to analyze the risk factors of youth victimisation and involvement in crime and violence, in particular in the context of increased vulnerabilities during COVID-19, and to identify existing and future responses in countries within the region.

17 JULY 2020
9:00 COLOMBIA, MEXICO, PERU
10:00 DOMINICAN REPUBLIC
16:00 VIENNA

PRE-REGISTRATION
SESSION I: RISK FACTORS OF YOUTH CRIME AND VIOLENCE IN THE CONTEXT OF COVID-19

The panelists will shed light on the key risk factors of youth crime and violence, and the techniques used by organized crime to recruit/involve youth in violence.

SESSION II: ACTIONS TO PREVENT YOUTH CRIME AND VIOLENCE DURING AND AFTER THE PANDEMIC

The panelists will share key actions and initiatives developed in the region to prevent youth crime and victimization during and after the pandemic.

CONCLUSIONS & CLOSING

MORE INFO

This is one of the UNODC online workshop series on “Youth Violence and Crime Prevention in the Context of COVID-19”