ORGANIZED CRIME AND WILDLIFE CRIME IN EASTERN AND SOUTHERN AFRICA

Organized crime is a truly global phenomenon that affects our everyday lives. Its nature and impact vary across different regions of the world. Some organized criminal groups have engaged in wildlife crime, which has devastating impacts on biodiversity, public health and security and the sustainable management of natural resources, particularly in regions like Eastern and Southern Africa.

Under the Education for Justice initiative, UNODC develops teaching material and unites academics to equip students with knowledge about these crimes and what can be and should be done to prevent and address them. This webinar is targeted at academics teaching on organized crime and wildlife crime in Eastern and Southern Africa, and aims to explore these topics and showcase the types of material UNODC has available to support them in preparing their students to discuss and debate these issues.
