

INTERNATIONAL
ACADEMIC CONFERENCE

CALL FOR PAPERS

Access to Justice to End Violence

Deadline:
17 April 2020

UNODC

The Doha Declaration:
PROMOTING A CULTURE OF LAWFULNESS

education for justice

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

Mumbai

1-2 June 2020

UNODC and TISS welcome conference papers from academics, research scholars, post graduate students, and practitioners that address these themes, and/or advance strategies to end violence.

Relevant themes for the conference include:

- Therapeutic jurisprudence
- Legal empowerment
- Access to legal aid
- Restorative justice
- Community policing
- Therapeutic supports for victims of violence
- The role of education in violence prevention
- Equality before the law
- Addressing the root causes of violence and injustice
- Strategies to end violence against women and children

Abstracts of 300 words (maximum) and the biography of the first author, 100 words (maximum) should be submitted to:
unodc-justiceconference@un.org

Abstracts will be considered on a rolling basis, with a closing date of:
Monday 17 April 2020.

Authors will be notified by:
Monday 24 April 2020.