

Human trafficking country study exercise sheet

Directions:

Divide the students into small groups and ask them to select a small number of countries. The purpose is to learn more about human trafficking in these countries. Please note that human trafficking is widespread. The students should include at least two facts about human trafficking in each selected country. The Global Report on Trafficking in Persons (2018) and related country profiles can be used as a resource.

Country	Facts