RESPONSE OF THE GOVERNMENT OF THE PHILIPPINES\textsuperscript{1}
TO NOTE CU 2011/26

\textsuperscript{1} This document is reproduced in the form and language in which it was received.
The rules do not seek to regulate the management of institutions and are for their benefit. The aims governing those categories and are for their benefit. Prisoners under sentence shall be equally applicable to categories of prisoners dealt with in Sections B and D. Provided they do not conflict with prisoners subject to specific measures or corrective measures ordered by the judge.

The following are not intended to describe in detail a model system of penal institutions. They are only on the basis of the General Consensus.

PRELIMINARY OBSERVATIONS

By the Economic and Social Council by its Resolution 66 C (XXVII) of 31 July 1957 and 2367 (XVII) of 13 May 1977

Adopted by the First United Nations Congress on Prevention of Crime and Treatment of Offenders, held in Geneva in 1955, and approved

STANDARD MINIMUM RULES FOR TREATMENT OF PRISONERS

PHILIPPINES
Section 2 - Admission

4. Certification that the case of the inmate is not on appeal.

3. Certification of detention order and date.

2. Information and Court decision in the case.

1. Warrant/Commitment Order from Court.

Pursuant to the following documents:

An inmate shall be admitted in the Reception and Diagnostic Center of a

- Date and hour of admission.

- Sentence:

- Reason for commitment and authority thereof.

- Name of the inmate.

- A record shall contain the following:

- Date and hour of discharge of transfer and basis thereof.

- Reason for commitment and authority thereof.

- The Registrar shall maintain the following:

A prison shall keep a bound registration book wherein all commitments shall

Section 2 - Basic Principles

1. The Rules on the admission, custody and treatment of inmates.

BUREAU OF CORRECTIONS

UN STANDARD
Keeping with the nature of the institution, these conditions shall be regular supervision by night, in certain periods. These shall be designed to associate with one another in such confinement as being suitable to associate with one another in such a way as to make an exception to this rule. If the duties of prison administration are less temporary or temporary, it becomes necessary for reasons, such as temporary or temporary, to become necessary for prisoners to occupy by night a cell or room by himself. For special situations, prisoners may occupy by night a cell or room by himself. For special situations, prisoners shall be kept separate from adults.

Young prisoners shall be kept separate from adults.

Separate from persons imprisoned by reason of a criminal offense; persons imprisoned for debt and other civil prisoners shall be kept separate from criminals.

Thus, the legal reason for their detention and the necessities of their treatment.

The different categories of prisoners shall be kept in separate institutions.
Chapter II, Sec. 4.4

Part II - Admission and Confinedment of Inmates

BQ1. Operating Manual

Not more than fourteen (14) hours after the previous day's dinner, inmates shall be served three (3) times a day. Breakfast shall be served.

Chapter II, Sec. 9

Part II - Admission and Confinedment of Inmates

BQ1. Operating Manual

One (1) meal, one (1) pillow with pillow case and one (1) mosquito net.

Aside from uniform, a newly admitted inmate shall be issued one (1) blanket.

Chapter II, Sec. 10

Part II - Admission and Confinedment of Inmates

BQ1. Operating Manual

Safety and Living Conditions of the Other Inmates. Provided the quantity, make, and dimension will not interfere with the inmate's own clothes and other items essential to his well-being.

Not Practice: Inmate shall wear his uniform especially when moving outside.

Bureau of Corrections

UN STANDARD

20. (1) Every prisoner shall be provided by the administration of the usual food. Drinking water shall be available to every prisoner whenever he needs.

Food

(2) Suitable drinking water and food prepared and served, and with food of nutritional value adequate for health and strength.

Enough to ensure its cleanliness.

Which shall be clean when issued. Keep in good order and changed often.

Provided with a separate bed, and with separate and sufficient bedding.

19. Every prisoner shall, in accordance with local or national standards, be clean and fit for use.

Made on their admission to the institution to the inmate that it shall be kept in good order and changed often.

(3) In exceptional circumstances, whenever a prisoner is removed outside maintenance of hygiene.

(2) All clothing shall be clean and kept in proper condition. Cleanliness shall be maintained by all inmates.

Clothing and bedding.

7. (1) Every person who is not allowed to wear his own clothes shall be provided with an outfit of clothing suitable for the climate and
Chapter II, Sec. 2.3, 4 & 9

Part V - Health, and Treatment of Inmates.

Bureau Operating Manual

The Inmate, Medical Officer, shall be served in a prison hospital/clinik at the same time that Medicines shall be served in a prison hospital/clinik at the same time that

26. (1) The medical officer shall, under the direction of the

25. (4) The medical officer shall have the care of the physical and mental health

24. Medical officer shall see and examine every prisoner as soon as possible

BUREAU OF CORRECTIONS

UN STANDARD

IMPRESARIO:

a. By any condition or

b. By an order of

23. (a) The superintendent of physical or mental health has been or will be notified

of the superintendent of physical or mental health

of physical or mental health

a. By any condition or

22. (a) The superintendent of physical or mental health has been or will be notified

of the superintendent of physical or mental health

of physical or mental health

a. By any condition or

21. (a) The superintendent of physical or mental health has been or will be notified

of the superintendent of physical or mental health

of physical or mental health

a. By any condition or

20. (a) The superintendent of physical or mental health has been or will be notified

of the superintendent of physical or mental health

of physical or mental health

a. By any condition or

19. (a) The superintendent of physical or mental health has been or will be notified

of the superintendent of physical or mental health

of physical or mental health

a. By any condition or

18. (a) The superintendent of physical or mental health has been or will be notified

of the superintendent of physical or mental health

of physical or mental health

a. By any condition or

17. (a) The superintendent of physical or mental health has been or will be notified

of the superintendent of physical or mental health

of physical or mental health

a. By any condition or

16. (a) The superintendent of physical or mental health has been or will be notified

of the superintendent of physical or mental health

of physical or mental health

a. By any condition or

15. (a) The superintendent of physical or mental health has been or will be notified

of the superintendent of physical or mental health

of physical or mental health

a. By any condition or

14. (a) The superintendent of physical or mental health has been or will be notified

of the superintendent of physical or mental health

of physical or mental health

a. By any condition or

13. (a) The superintendent of physical or mental health has been or will be notified

of the superintendent of physical or mental health

of physical or mental health

a. By any condition or

12. (a) The superintendent of physical or mental health has been or will be notified

of the superintendent of physical or mental health

of physical or mental health

a. By any condition or

11. (a) The superintendent of physical or mental health has been or will be notified

of the superintendent of physical or mental health

of physical or mental health

a. By any condition or

10. (a) The superintendent of physical or mental health has been or will be notified

of the superintendent of physical or mental health

of physical or mental health

a. By any condition or

9. (a) The superintendent of physical or mental health has been or will be notified

of the superintendent of physical or mental health

of physical or mental health

a. By any condition or

8. (a) The superintendent of physical or mental health has been or will be notified

of the superintendent of physical or mental health

of physical or mental health

a. By any condition or

7. (a) The superintendent of physical or mental health has been or will be notified

of the superintendent of physical or mental health

of physical or mental health

a. By any condition or

6. (a) The superintendent of physical or mental health has been or will be notified

of the superintendent of physical or mental health

of physical or mental health

a. By any condition or

5. (a) The superintendent of physical or mental health has been or will be notified

of the superintendent of physical or mental health

of physical or mental health

a. By any condition or

4. (a) The superintendent of physical or mental health has been or will be notified

of the superintendent of physical or mental health

of physical or mental health

a. By any condition or

3. (a) The superintendent of physical or mental health has been or will be notified

of the superintendent of physical or mental health

of physical or mental health

a. By any condition or

2. (a) The superintendent of physical or mental health has been or will be notified

of the superintendent of physical or mental health

of physical or mental health

a. By any condition or

1. (a) The superintendent of physical or mental health has been or will be notified

of the superintendent of physical or mental health

of physical or mental health

a. By any condition or

0. (a) The superintendent of physical or mental health has been or will be notified

of the superintendent of physical or mental health

of physical or mental health

a. By any condition or
Chapter 2, Sec. 5.

Part VI - Discipline and Punishment of Inmates

Sec. 3.

Chapter 2, Sec. 3.

Part IV - Discipline and Punishment of Inmates

BUREAU OF CORRECTIONS
Chapter 2, Sec. 2-d
Chapter 7, Sec. 1 & 3

BUREAU OF CORRECTIONS

Chapter 1, Sec. 2-b
Chapter 5, Sec. 18 & 11

Bureaucratic Manual

Part III - Rights and Privileges of an Inmate

1. Inmates have the right to participate in religious and other activities. Services of similar religious activities shall be on a voluntary basis. Inmate's attendance at services shall not be required. Each religious and moral material shall be respected.

2. Newspapers and other reading materials are available inside prison campuses.

3. Books, and other reading materials are allowed to read books and other reading materials in the library.

4. Every institution shall have a library for the use of all categories of inmates.

5. Books and materials allowed to inmates shall be encouraged to make full use of.

6. Every institution shall have a library for the use of all categories of inmates.

7. Rights and privileges of an Inmate

8. Inmates are entitled to religious activities and other activities. Services of similar religious activities shall be on a voluntary basis.

9. Inmate's attendance at services shall not be required. Each religious and moral material shall be respected.

10. Newspapers and other reading materials are available inside prison campuses.

11. Books, and other reading materials are allowed to read books and other reading materials in the library.

12. Every institution shall have a library for the use of all categories of inmates.

13. Books and materials allowed to inmates shall be encouraged to make full use of.

14. Every institution shall have a library for the use of all categories of inmates.
The personnel shall possess an adequate standard of education and employment benefits and conditions of service shall be favorable in view of the existing civil service commission rules and laws for public servants. The personnel selected process of the Bureau of Corrections is consistent with the requirements of the policy of the government.

Importance of inmates and confinement of prisoners. The rehabilitation program at the expense of the administration.

Bureau of Corrections
The Director of this duly representative conducts a regular inspection of the different prisons and penal farms.

Chapter 2, Sec. 3-C
Part IV – Discipline and Punishment of Inmates
Section 3-C. Conduct of courses on self-defense

Another person from the inmate attack, to prevent riot or escape. Officers, except in cases where the latter act in self-defense, to protect other inmates are protected against the use of physical force by correctional officers.

Female offenders are attended to by correctional officers.

FEMALE OFFENDERS ARE ATTENDED TO BY CORRECTIONAL OFFICERS.

Inspection

55. The shall be a regular inspection of penal institutions and services by more than is strictly necessary and must report the incident to the nearest higher authority.

IMMEDIATELY TO THE DIRECTOR OF THE INSTITUTION.

54. (1) Officers of the institutions shall not in their relations with the inmates,

b) In other institutions, the medical officer shall visit daily and shall reside.

Inmates.

BUDDY EMPLOYEES, INCLUDING MEDICAL OFFICERS ARE GRANTED QUARTERS WITHIN THE PRISON RESERVATION.

52. (1) In institutions where the inmates are capable of furnishing the necessary volunteer personnel, the services of an interpreter shall be used.

(2) Whenever necessary, the services of an interpreter shall be used.

51. (1) The Director, his deputy, and the majority of the personnel of the

BUREAU OF CORRECTIONS

OFFICE OF STANDARDS

50. TRIPS TO THE INSTITUTION.
The medical services of the institution shall detect, treat, and control communicable disease, tuberculosis, skin disorders, mental illness, and other diseases, which may happen to a patient, and shall provide services to neuropsychiatric patients in prison hospital under the special supervision of a medical officer, who submits report on patients to the medical superintendent of a prison hospital.

Chapter I: Sec. 3

Part II: Administration and Control of Inmates

Provision of Correctional Administration

Section 1: The responsibility of the prisoners of the respect due to their dignity as human beings.

Section 2: The regime of the institution should seek to minimize any differences in the individual treatment needs of the prisoners.

Section 3: The prisoners should be treated as human beings and should seek to apply them according to their potential and other factors such as age, sex, educational level, and the standard of the institution.
A prison shall have separate prison compounds for the segregation of inmates.

Chapter 1, Sec. 2

Port Il. Admission and Confinement of Inmates

According to their security classification.

Treatment with a view to their social rehabilitation.

A prison shall have separate prison compounds for the segregation of inmates.

Chapter 4

Port Il. Admission and Confinement of Inmates

and Initial Security Classification.

Treatment program in inmate will undergo.

Chapter 1, Sec. 4

Port Il. Admission and Confinement of Inmates

information about the inmate's personal, social, and occupational history, the result of the intake interview.

The RC classifications board regularly classifies inmates according to their

6. Health and Welfare Programs
5. Work and Vocation Programs
4. Religious Programs
3. Sports and Recreation Programs
2. Behavior Modification Program
1. Education Modification Program

Rehabilitation Programs Provided:

Un Standardized

Bureau of Corrections
Chapter 2, Section 1
Part II - Rights and Privileges of Inmate

Bureau of Corrections

Inmates

Youth Offenders SCYO provides vocational training courses for young Prospective Inmates (WTC) and the special class for The Multinational Inmate Training Center (WTC) and the Special Class.

Required to work on weekends.

A newly convicted able-bodied inmate may be required to work at least at least eight (8) hours a day, except on Sundays and legal holidays, in and about national government in the interest of the service; however, they may be public buildings, grounds, roads, and other public works of the prison.

Prison labor must not be of an onerous nature.

1. Prison labor must not be of an onerous nature.

Department of Corrections

2. All prisoners under sentence shall be required to work, subject to their

3. Suitable work of a useful nature shall be provided to keep prisoners

4. So far as possible, the work provided shall be such as will maintain or

5. Vocational training in useful trades shall be provided for prisoners able

6. Within the limits compatible with proper vocational selection and with

(6) To profit thereby and especially for your prisoners.

(5) Vocational training in useful trades shall be provided for prisoners able

(4) So far as possible, the work provided shall be such as will maintain or

(3) Such work of a useful nature shall be provided to keep prisoners

(2) Physical and mental fitness as determined by the medical officer.

(1) Prison labor must not be of an onerous nature.
Chapter 3 - Compensation Credits

Part III - Rights and Privileges of an Inmate

Bureau of Corrections Manual

Inmate's Trust Fund:

The credits, to which shall be part of the accountancy of the fund created, the credits to which shall be part of the information in connection with his duty of supervision the proper stewardship shall be furnished the commission on request for this purpose.

Compensation Credits - Compensation credits shall be allowed in the payment of work assigned to him.

The shows interest in a definite degree of progress in the particular work, as is reasonably good conduct, and is permitted by the director.

Release Guidelines and Policies

Chapter IV - Supervision of Inmate Workers and Prison Aids Industries Manual

The health and safety requirements:

The medical officer shall be responsible for monitoring the compliance with all his duty designated representative in all operating institutions (preferably a safety and health rules are implemented: the bureau medical coordinator or

BUREAU OF CORRECTIONS

UN STANDARD

Ch. 7, Sec. 3.1.1.2: Bureau of Consolidated Fiscal and Treatment of Inmates

Psychiatric treatment of all other prisoners who are in need of such treatment shall be prescribed under the special supervision of a medical officer. During their stay in the prison, such prisoners shall be treated in special institutions supervised by the medical officer.

(2) Persons who are found to be insane shall not be detained in prisons and shall be committed to specialized institutions where such patients are treated under the specific supervision of a medical officer.

(3) During their stay in the prison, such prisoners shall be treated in special institutions supervised by the medical officer.

(4) The medical or psychiatric services of the prison institutions shall be provided for the medical or psychiatric treatment of all other prisoners who are in need of such treatment.