

Safety on board

Please do not remove this card from the aircraft

#BeAwareOfTheSigns

Pay attention to these human trafficking indicators

If you are a passenger, flight attendant, cabin crew, baggage handler, check-in staff, duty free sales person, migration/custom official, cargo crew, or anyone working in an airline or airport, this information is important for you.

If you see a person showing any of the following signs, please contact the authorities.

			Show fear or anxiety. Feel that they cannot leave. Show signs that their movements are being controlled.
Have limited or no social interaction. Be unable to communicate freely with others. Suffer injuries as a result of an assault or aggression.
			Be afraid of revealing their immigration status. Not know the address of their home or workplace. Not be in possession of their travel documents as they're being held by someone else. Have false identity or travel documents. Not be familiar with the local language. Allow others to speak for them when addressed directly.

Safety on board

Please do not remove this card from the aircraft

#BeAwareOfTheSigns

Pay attention to these migrant smuggling indicators

If you are a passenger, flight attendant, cabin crew, baggage handler, check-in staff, duty free sales person, migration/custom official, cargo crew, or anyone working in an airline or airport, this information is important for you.

If you see a person showing any of the following signs, please contact the authorities.

Not know the country or state where he/she is arriving at or travelling to.
May have distinctive clothing or hairstyle [small groups of smuggled persons often have the same characteristics such as clothing or bags of the same colour].

Not know their home or workplace address.
Not know the name/address of the person or place where he/she is going to stay.
Not know the people he/she is travelling with.

Travel in the company of a supervisor who might hold the passports of a group of people.
Seem to be lost or walking slightly behind a group, looking nervous, sweating or shaking.
Travel with false identity, travel documents or residence permit.
Not give a credible explanation about the purpose of his/her trip, or provides illogical or inconsistent information.
Have little or no luggage.
Not be welcomed with signs of affection when arriving at the transit or destination country.

