INDIGENOUS-LED EFFORTS:
A gendered and intercultural approach to addressing Trafficking in Persons

23 November 2021, 2:00-2:50pm (NY time)

AGENDA

- Introduction and presentation of speakers
- International cooperation measures to address trafficking in persons
  Speaker: Government of Canada
- Presentation of the Project “Detection and Prevention of Human Trafficking in Indigenous Communities in Mexico”
  Speaker: UNODC Mexico
- Amplifying the voice of indigenous women to address trafficking in persons
  - Awareness-raising
  - Capacity-building
  - Community-based networks
  Speaker: Houses of the Indigenous Women (Baja California, Veracruz and Puebla)
- Mainstreaming an intercultural approach to trafficking in persons cases
  Speaker: Government of Mexico
- Q&A
- Closing remarks