Violence (UNODC)

Human Trafficking (UNODC)

Corruption (UNODC)

Discrimination (OHCHR)

Access to Justice (UNDP, UNODC, OECD)

Governance (UNDP)
SDG 16 Survey Initiative

• One single operation for all indicators

• Incorporates the several international standards

• Flexible to allow countries to adapt according with their national data needs. So if they wish, it is possible to incorporate just a few modules.

• Methodology is strengthened by cognitive testing and critique by several institutions and experts

• Implementation comes with high costs
16.7.1b
Inclusive representation in the public service
Measures the extent to which a country’s public service is representative of the general population, with a focus on women, youth, persons with a disability and nationally relevant population groups.

16.7.1c
Inclusive representation in the judiciary
Measures the extent to which a country’s judiciary is representative of the general population, with a focus on two key decision-making positions in courts: judges and registrars.

Data flows and the reporting platform

- Other data provider
- NSO Quality Assurance Mechanism
- Custodian Agency
- UNSD Global Indicator Database
- Estimated and modelled data
- Data and metadata
Data Reporting Platform

• For all five indicators
• Direct access and data input by NSOs
• Annual reporting calendar

https://sdg16reporting.undp.org/
Data Reporting Platform

- Additional Information on each indicator is provided
- NSOs can directly send queries to UNDP
- There is a downloadable version of the data entry forms
- Information can be consulted by other individuals in the NSO as long as they have login and password
- Information can be corrected
“All countries and all stakeholders, acting in collaborative partnership, will implement this plan. We are resolved to free the human race from the tyranny of poverty and want and to heal and secure our planet. We are determined to take the bold and transformative steps which are urgently needed to shift the world on to a sustainable and resilient path. As we embark on this collective journey, we pledge that no one will be left behind.” - Transforming our world: the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development (A/RES/70/1)
• Launched in 2018
• Hosted eDiscussions leading up to HLPF
• Has SDG16 resources and interactive space for peer to peer exchange
• More than 900 registered SDG16 users
• Community engagement – important focus of the Hub.
