

20 years

of the UN Trafficking in Persons Protocol Past, Present and Future

Tuesday, October 13, 2020,
14:00-15:00 CET

Join us

Panel discussion

The United States, UNODC and the European Union are hosting an online high-level event to mark the 20th anniversary of the UN Protocol to Prevent, Suppress and Punish Trafficking in Persons especially women and children.

The event takes place in the margins of the 10th Conference of the Parties to the UN Convention against Transnational Organized Crime.

Senior officials, government representatives and members of civil society will acknowledge the achievements of the past twenty years, review the challenges in implementing the Protocol and discuss the future role of this international treaty

Speakers

John Cotton Richmond, Ambassador to Monitor and Combat Trafficking in Persons, US

John Brandolino, Director Division for Treaty Affairs, UNODC

Olivier Onidi, Deputy-Director General, Migration and Home Affairs, European Commission and EU Anti-trafficking Coordinator

Siobhán Mullally, UN Special Rapporteur on Trafficking in Persons

Honourable Richard Chimwendo Banda, Minister of Homeland Security, Malawi

Hosna Jalil, Deputy Minister of Interior Affairs, Afghanistan

Marijana Savic, Director of NGO ATINA, Serbia

Marcela Loaiza, Trafficking Survivor, Author and Activist, Colombia

UNODC