

Update to the organization of work for the twelfth session of the Working Group on International Cooperation (25-26 March 2021)

I. Availability of additional online/remote participation links

In relation to the twelfth meeting of the Working Group on International Cooperation, to be held in Vienna on 25 and 26 March in a hybrid format, and with reference to note verbale CU 2020/428, of 18 December 2020, and CU 2021/114, of 3 March 2021, the secretariat would like to inform Member States that additional links for online participants are available, based on the current number of registered delegations and delegates as follows:

1. 3 additional links would be made available, upon request, to each delegation of a Member State; and

2. 1 additional link to each international organization.

The secretariat requests interested Member States and organizations to send their requests for additional slots for online participants, in the form of an official note verbale, to be transmitted via email, to untoc.cop@un.org, by Friday, 19 March 2021. Each request should contain the name, title/function, workplace and individual email address of the additional designated experts who will attend the meeting.
