

Walk the Talk: Strengthening Synergies and Coordination

Monday 11 December
18:00 – 18:50 | Room Chicago A 305

Format: Hybrid

The event brings together organizations and review mechanisms to combine knowledge, exchange on policy developments, technical assistance, strengthen collaboration and remove silos within the international anti-corruption architecture to determine how to efficiently support States in implementing effective and sustainable anti-corruption solutions.

Click here to join the meeting online!

Participants:

UNODC	John Brandolino (Director, Division for Treaty Affairs)
EU	Johannes Luchner (Deputy Director General, DG Migration & Home Affairs, EU Commission)
GRECO	Marin Mrcela (President of GRECO)
OECD	France Chain (Senior Legal Analyst, Anti-Corruption Division)
IMF	Luis Urrutia (Deputy General Counsel)
AFRICAN UNION	Seynabou Ndiaye Diakhate (Chairperson, AU Advisory Board Against Corruption)
OAS	Jorge Garcia-Gonzalez (Director, Legal Co-operation Department)
LEAGUE OF ARAB STATES	Maha Bakheet Zaki (Director, Legal Affairs Department)

Moderated by Stephen J. Curzon (Head of Unit, Legal Affairs and Anticorruption, DG Migration & Home Affairs, EU Commission)