

"Links between corruption and other forms of crime"

States parties are invited to provide relevant information in line with paragraph 22 of resolution 9/1¹, in which the Conference:

Encourage[d] States parties to further explore and enhance their knowledge of the links between corruption and other forms of crime, in particular organized crime and economic crime, including money-laundering, including during times of emergencies and crisis response and recovery, to better strengthen integrity, transparency and accountability, and invite[d] the secretariat, within existing resources, to compile a report in this regard on the voluntary information provided by States parties and submit it to the Conference at its tenth session[emphasis added].

States parties may wish to take a broad view of "other forms of crime" when responding to this questionnaire, which may include all forms of organized crime and economic crime, as well as other crime, among others.

Contact Information

Please provide contact details for potential follow-up questions. Contact details will be treated confidentially.

Country: Islamic Republic of Pakistan

Government Agency: National Accountability Bureau ("NAB")

Department: International Cooperation Wing ("ICW")

¹In July 2022, the secretariat sent out note verbale CU 2022/264(A)/DTA/CEB/CSS inviting States parties to provide information on good practices and challenges concerning international cooperation to further prevent, identify, investigate and prosecute corruption during times of emergencies and crisis response and recovery, in line with paragraphs 22 and 23 of resolution 9/1 entitled "Sharm el-Sheikh declaration on strengthening international cooperation in the prevention of and fight against corruption during times of emergencies and crisis response and recovery". As at 11 October 2022, the secretariat had received responses from 23 States parties, which were analysed in a note prepared by the secretariat, entitled "Best practices and challenges concerning international cooperation in combating corruption during times of emergencies and crisis response and recovery, and efforts to further explore and enhance knowledge of the links between corruption and other forms of crime" [CAC/COSP/EG.1/2022/CRP.1]. Responses were received from the following States parties: Australia, Bahrain, Belarus, Brazil, Bulgaria, Chad, Chile, Egypt, El Salvador, European Union, France, Georgia, Italy, Mexico, Republic of Moldova, Myanmar, Panama, Portugal, Republic of Moldova, Romania, Saudi Arabia, Spain, Türkiye and the United States of America.

Handwritten marks at the bottom left of the page.

Questionnaire

Corruption may contribute to impunity for other types of crime by providing the leverage to facilitate and execute them, and to make them invisible, and often exacerbates those crimes through the involvement of powerful elites and individuals. Corrupt behaviour (such as violating duties, accepting or transferring bribes, and facilitating transactions, as well as ignoring or failing to follow-up on information that a crime may be taking place) may serve as an enabler of other crimes by allowing for the enrichment of criminals and incentivizing individuals in the public and private sector to facilitate their operation. Other crimes can therefore flourish and in turn provide a basis for a wide range of corrupt behaviour.

This questionnaire is structured into two parts: Part 1 considers steps taken to understand the links between corruption and other forms of crime, while Part 2 focuses on the measures aimed at responding to corruption linked with other forms of crime.

I. Understanding the links between corruption and other forms of crime

1. Has your country undertaken any analyses or assessments to better understand the interlinkages between corruption and other forms of crime, including typologies of crime and how corruption may be used to facilitate and enable organized crime, economic and other crime, and vice versa? YES.
 - a. If YES, was such analysis carried out through formal risk assessments or other methods? Please describe.
 - In the year 2019, the Islamic Republic of Pakistan undertook a Formal National Risk Assessment to better understand the interlinkages between corruption and other forms of crime .
2. Please list the main typologies of other crime that have interlinkages with corruption in your country.
 - Drug trafficking
 - Money-laundering
 - Human trafficking
 - Migrant smuggling
 - Firearms trafficking
 - Crimes that affect the environment
 - Trafficking in cultural property
 - Cybercrime
 - Terrorism
 - Other forms of economic crime, organized crime or other crime with links to corruption (please list)

- Cheating public at large (Ponzi Schemes) and Fraud (Various kinds including banking and housing sector).

3. Please provide examples of corruption linked to these other crimes.

➤ Corrupt transactions may result in the commission of several offences. There are some of the following examples where corruption is linked to other crimes:

- Bribery normally involves a degree of fraud. A bribe paid to win a contract will normally be concealed by some deceitful act. Many acts of fraud may need an act of bribery in order to complete the fraud. Cartels may be prohibited by a specific cartel offence, but may also be prosecutable as fraud (as the customer is being deceived to believe that there is genuine competition between the bidders). Any act of bribery or fraud by a public official will normally also constitute an abuse of power.
- Embezzlement and misappropriation will normally involve an element of fraud, and may be an abuse of power.
- Money laundering is any movement through the banking system of the proceeds of a bribe, fraudulent act, abuse of power or embezzlement will normally constitute money laundering (as the proceeds of a crime are being moved). In other words, it occurs where a person moves cash obtained by criminal activity through the financial system.
- Speed money is the term often used in relation to payments made to public officials so as to obtain or expedite services to which the payer is entitled in the first place.
- Fraud is sometimes referred to as "deception". Fraud usually involves a person(s) deceiving another person(s) in order to gain some financial or other advantage.
- Abuse of power occurs where a person in public office deliberately or recklessly acts in a way that is contrary to her/his duty and is in breach of her/his position of public trust.
- Illicit enrichment which includes significant increase in assets without having lawful resources.
- A public office holder uses his position to obtain unfair advantage or uses his authority to gain monetary benefit for himself or any person related to him.
- Cheating a public at large/ Ponzi Schemes by using deceptive practices. This is a fraudulent investing scam which generates returns for earlier investors with money taken from later investors.

Please elaborate if you have or had any cases of the following in your country:

A. Corruption as an enabler of crime

- a. Cases of public officials abusing their office to facilitate criminal activity or to protect certain criminal individuals and entities – or to gain support from them – for example, by providing funding or protection or to gain and control public resources? N/A
- b.
- c. Cases of corruption being used to facilitate other types of crime, such as trafficking in persons, illicit trade or smuggling of drugs across borders? For example, have any cases involved the following: N/A
 - the issuance of permits, licenses, visas or documents for border crossings
 - the purchasing of firearms
 - bribery of border agents
 - falsification of data in public registries
 - other

f ae

- d. Cases of corruption in public procurement to advance the interests of public officials and their associates? Cases of officials giving preferred access to contracts and tenders to their associates in cases involving other crimes?
- e. Cases of the protection of victims of crime and corruption being impeded by corruption involving public officials or persons in the private sector?

B. Corruption and crime linked to political patronage

- a. Criminal individuals and entities attempting to use corruption to obtain access to political leadership or to gain power and influence, such as through: NO
 - political party financing
 - trading in influence
 - other
- b. Cases of crime and corruption being used to attempt to influence or disrupt elections? NO
- c. Cases of criminal involvement, including through the use of corruption, to attempt to influence appointments of public officials to build dependency? NO

C. Corruption to make organized and other crime invisible

- a. Cases of criminals and their associates using proceeds of crime and corruption for personal enrichment and to conceal the origin of the crimes and for money-laundering? In particular, cases of concealment of ownership being used to facilitate corruption and other forms of crime?
 - b. Cases of corruption being used to impede investigations, prosecutions and adjudications of organized and other crime, such as through bribery or allocation of political and other favours to law enforcement and judicial officers? Are there cases of corruption linked to organized and other crime not being pursued by the authorities ('blind eye')? NO
 - c. Cases of individuals and entities using corruption and other crimes to generate the funds needed to buy protection from the police? Cases of corruption in law enforcement authorities used to shield organized crime? NO
 - d. Cases of law enforcement being impeded due to a lack of information and data, as well as reporting of crimes related to corruption? NO
4. Has your country collected data or statistics to track and/or analyse trends related to the links between corruption and the types of crime outlined in Question 2 above? NO
- a. Are these data analysed and used systematically, such as in prevention and investigations or prosecutions? No such data available.
 - b. Please describe any methodologies used for strengthening measurement and terminological clarity, and achieving a deeper understanding of the different contexts (e.g. in times of peace or in emergencies or conflict situations) and sectors (e.g. law enforcement, border crossing, immigration, intelligence and security, procurement), as well as any corruption or organized crime threat assessments that take into account the interlinkages between corruption and other forms of crime. No such data available.

- 5. Has your country collected data or statistics to track and/or analyse trends concerning international cooperation in this regard? NO
 - a. Please elaborate and share any findings with regard to the good practices and challenges in international cooperation with regard to countering corruption as it relates to other forms of crime.
- Use and access to goAML platform, formal and informal networks, MLA requests, MoUs are some of good practices in international cooperation. However, limited bilateral treaties and MoUs in different fields caused delay in access to information.
- 6. Has your country taken any steps at national, regional or local levels to better understand and study the linkages between corruption and other crimes, such as criminological research, training or awareness raising? YES
 - a. If YES, please elaborate, providing examples.
There are different anti-corruption agencies working at federal and provincial level which hold seminars and public awareness programmes throughout the year to sensitise the public about the grave risks and dangers associated with corruption.
- 7. Which aspects of corruption as it relates to other forms of crime do you consider require further research, and what are the gaps in knowledge or understanding that, if addressed, could facilitate countering these crimes?
 - Crypto Currency and other crimes that impede environment needs further research.
 - Operating cycle of the crime needs to be identified to fill gaps between corruption and its link with crimes impacting environment.
 - Inter-agency cooperation between countries required to be enhanced.

II. Measures aimed at responding to corruption linked with other forms of crime

- 8. Has your government adopted or utilized any measures at national, regional or local levels aimed at preventing corruption linked with other forms of crime? YES
 - a. If YES, please elaborate. Measures may include:
 - safeguards in specific sectors (e.g. law enforcement, border crossing, immigration, intelligence and security, procurement, local officials)
 - development of targeted strategies, policies, action plans at national or sectoral level specifically addressing the links between corruption and other crime
 - establishment of dedicated institutional frameworks
 - specific rules, codes of conduct, or standards of transparency and integrity for public officials who are most exposed to the risk of being involved in crime and corruption
 - systems for the disclosure of assets and private interests
 - control mechanisms, such as internal approval systems to avoid having one-to-one meetings
 - controls on issuances of visas, work permits, firearms licenses

7 a

- the use of information and communication technology (ICT) based tools to prevent (or detect) such crimes
- awareness raising and prevention measures for public officials that are vulnerable to corruption and other forms of crime
- other

9. Has your government adopted or utilized any measures aimed at detecting, investigating and prosecuting corruption linked with other forms of crime? YES.

a. If YES, please elaborate. Measures may include:

- legislation criminalizing all forms of corruption related to other types of crime
- legislation providing for the liability of legal persons for their role in corruption linked to other forms of crime
- measures to identify beneficial owners of legal persons
- specialized investigative techniques
- strengthened institutional frameworks, including the establishment of dedicated bodies (such as those mandated to identify links between corruption and other crime), task forces or coordination mechanisms between authorities responsible for corruption and other crime
- capacity-building, including targeted training and peer-learning for relevant authorities
- measures to enable the identification, confiscation, tracing or seizure (and, where relevant, return) of assets that are proceeds of corruption-related crimes
- mechanisms to address the role of professional gatekeepers (i.e. financial, legal, accounting or other relevant professionals) in the transfer of proceeds of corruption and other crime
- measures aimed at encouraging the protection or participation of actors outside the public sector, including:
 - reporting mechanisms, legal protections and incentives aimed at encouraging persons to report corruption and other crimes
 - measures to protect victims, witnesses, and cooperating offenders
 - measures aimed at ensuring the investigation and prosecution of acts of violence committed against journalists and civil society actors whose professional activity relates to corruption linked with other crimes
- other

10. Has your government adopted or utilized any measures aimed at facilitating international cooperation and the rapid exchange of information for cases that have interlinkages between corruption and other forms of crime? YES.

a. If YES, please elaborate. Measures may include:

- the implementation of mutual legal assistance through digital means
- measures aimed at enhancing the efficiency of extradition mechanisms
- the use of electronic communication channels or networks
- the use of joint or parallel investigations or the bilateral sharing of capacity and expertise on investigating and prosecuting corruption offences linked with other forms of crime
- cooperation with other countries or multilateral, international or regional bodies to address corruption linked with other forms of crime
- accession to bilateral, regional or multilateral treaties and agreements.
- other

7
600