

Second Conference of the States Parties to the UN Convention against Corruption

Nusa Dua, Indonesia
28 January -1 February 2008

AGENDA

Business Coalition:
The UN Convention against Corruption as a
New Market Force

30 January 2008
Bali International Convention Centre
Nusantara Room 1

Supported by:

UNITED NATIONS
Office on Drugs and Crime

United Nations Global Compact

COMMITTED TO
IMPROVING THE STATE
OF THE WORLD

ORGANISATION
FOR ECONOMIC
CO-OPERATION
AND DEVELOPMENT

 TRANSPARENCY INTERNATIONAL
the global coalition against corruption

International Chamber of Commerce
The world business organization

Facilitator: Mr. Michael Kennedy, Head of New York Law Firm specialized in private-public corruption cases

9:00 - 9:30	Opening
9:00 - 9:15 9:15 - 9:30	Ms. Kuniko Director, Division for Treaty Affairs, UNODC Ambassador Chul Ki Ju, Coordinator, UN Global Compact Local Network Objective: to welcome the participants, introduce the panellists and outline the goals of the Event.
9:30 - 11:00	Session One: Corporate Integrity Standards, aligning Business Principles to the Convention and assessing companies' compliance
	Chairs: Ambassador Juan Carlos Capuñay, Executive Director, Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation Mr. Patrick Moulette, Head, Anti-Corruption Division, Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development Mr. Michael Pedersen, Global Leadership Fellow, World Economic Forum/Partnering Against Corruption Initiative Mr. Christiaan Poortman, Global Programmes Director, Transparency International Panellists: CEO to be identified (1) Objectives: (a) to share companies' views on how to align the voluntary business principles to the values of the Convention; (b) to discuss existing and explore innovative ways of reporting compliance with such principles; and (c) to discuss "voluntary pilot review mechanisms" and other means to assess companies' compliance with international integrity standards.
11:00 - 11:15	Coffee break
11:15 - 12:00	Session Two: Large Companies / Small- and Medium-Sized Enterprises Dialogue
	Chair: Ambassador Chul Ki Ju, Coordinator, UN Global Compact Local Network Panellists: Ambassador Curtis Chin, US Executive Director, Asian Development Bank; Ms. Susan Cote-Freeman, Project Manager, Private Sector, Transparency International; CEOs to be identified (up to 2) Objective: to enhance cooperation between large companies, endowed with increasingly effective internal integrity mechanisms, and small- and medium-sized enterprises – sharing experience and lending support.
12:00 - 12:30	Session Three: UNCAC as the "Insurance Policy" to safeguard business investments
	Chair: Dr. Maria Lourdes A. Arcenas, Trustee/Executive Director, Business for Integrity and Stability of Our Nation 2020

	Panellists:; Mr. Soji Apampa, Executive Director, Convention on Business Integrity; CEOs to be identified (up to 2) Objective: to discuss the role of the corporate community in supporting anti-corruption infrastructure in the countries where they do business.
12:30 -13:00	Session Four: Conclusions and recommendations, charting the way forward
	Ambassador Chul Ki Ju, Coordinator, UN Global Compact Local Network Ambassador Juan Carlos Capuñay, Executive Director, Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation Mr. Patrick Moulette, Head, Anti-Corruption Division, Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development Mr. Michael Pedersen, Global Leadership Fellow, World Economic Forum/Partnering Against Corruption Initiative Mr. Christiaan Poortman, Global Programmes Director, Transparency International Objective: to finalize and endorse the conclusions and recommendations of the Business Coalition Forum, including a plan of action in accordance with the outcome of Sessions 1-3. On 1 February, the conclusions will be brought to the attention of the Conference of the States Parties. The business community and governments will share progress made in implementing their respective plans at the third Conference of the States Parties, to be held in Qatar in 2009.