

CONFERENCE OF THE STATES PARTIES TO THE UNITED NATIONS
CONVENTION AGAINST CORRUPTION, FIFTH SESSION
Panama City, Panama, 25-29 November 2013

SPECIAL EVENT

DEVELOPMENT OF NATIONAL STRATEGIES TO FIGHT CORRUPTION
28 NOVEMBER 2013, 11.00 a.m. – 1.30 p.m, SALA LAGUNILLA

I. EVENT SUMMARY

In recent years, the fight against corruption has been declared a national priority by governments worldwide. The importance given to reforms in this area is reflected in the number of States that have recently or are presently developing national strategies and action plans aimed at combatting and preventing corruption. This special event, hosted by the government of Morocco, will provide an opportunity to share country experiences in the development and implementation of national anti-corruption strategies and to reflect on the conclusions of the recent high-level meeting in Kuala Lumpur aimed at developing a set of global guidelines in this field.

Emphasis will be placed on how those outside the public sector, including civil society, private businesses and academia, can play a role in the development, implementation and monitoring of national strategies and how best communication can be improved between these actors.
