

Academic Contributions to Anti-Corruption

Prof. Dr. Nikos Passas, Northeastern University and Intl Anti-Corruption
Academy

Academic Contributions to Anti-Corruption

- Capacity building
- Sustainability
- Contextual understanding
- Independence

Capacity Building

- Awareness of problems, standards and policies/measures in place
- Methods to assess and respond to evaluations
- Research for knowledge production and distribution
- Brainstorm on teaching practices, published and other materials, cases, case studies, course examples
- Train teachers and professors
- Certificate programs for public and private sector
- Undergraduate and graduate degrees

Sustainability

- Continuity – cohorts and no drilling of holes in the water
- Culture of integrity – values and behavior
- Touch the youth, future leaders and current officials
- Develop strategy and involve all stakeholders

Context

- Types and Causes of Corruption
 - Local priorities and specificities
- Visualize effects and inspire students for involvement and initiative
- History, culture, priorities, legality v. legitimacy
- Strategy

Independence

- Critical spirit
- Constructive feedback, reasoned arguments and innovation
 - Evidence-based dialogue and policy making
- Enabling environment and resources
- Pragmatism

Thank you so much

Nikos Passas
+1-617-373 4309
n.passas@neu.edu
npassas@gmail.com