

SPECIAL EVENT
LEGAL INCENTIVES FOR PROMOTING CORPORATE INTEGRITY AND COOPERATION

FIFTH SESSION OF THE CONFERENCE OF THE STATES PARTIES TO THE UNITED NATIONS CONVENTION AGAINST CORRUPTION
Wednesday, 27 November 2013
Panama City, Panama
13:00 – 14:00, Languilla Room

I. Background

Governments have responsibilities under UNCAC to prevent corruption within the private sector, but how best can they apply legal measures that sanction corrupt practices while also incentivizing corporate integrity?

In order to share good practices in this field, United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime (UNODC) and the International Anti-corruption Academy (IACA) have developed a new publication, A Resource Guide on State Measures for Strengthening Corporate Integrity which will provide Member States with a range of sanctions and incentives that have been developed to advance UNCAC objectives for preventing and addressing corruption within the private sector.

For those seeking to more closely examine good practices and how they might put these laws and resources in place in their own countries, IACA/UNODC will hold a training workshop 24-26 March 2014 which will give interested parties an opportunity to further explore provisions related to corporate integrity.

II. Draft programme

Within the framework of a joint UNODC/IACA project on Strengthening Corporate Integrity and Cooperation, the two partners will launch and share further information on these new resources that have been developed.

III. Agenda

Launch of resources on strengthening corporate integrity (13:00 – 13:30):

- UNODC/IACA new publication A Resource Guide on State Measures for Strengthening Corporate Integrity
 - Shannon Bullock, Programme Officer, UNODC
- IACA/UNODC new training workshop on Legal Incentives for Corporate Integrity Training (LICIT)
