ANTI-CORRUPTION EDUCATION AND TRAINING FOR IMPLEMENTING UNCAC (CHAPTERS II AND V)

.....

This side event will raise awareness of the importance of anti-corruption education and training in the implementation of the United Nations Convention against Corruption(UNCAC), particularly with regard to prevention and asset recovery. It will discuss the key ingredients of comprehensive capacity-building programmes on the international and regional levels, and shed light on the benefits of cross-sectoral participation.

The aim is to showcase IACA’s Master in Anti-Corruption Studies programme as well as thematic trainings and workshops developed to facilitate actors’ compliance with relevant provisions of the UNCAC. The side event will set the stage for discussion on the significance of these activities and also argue for their relevance in efforts to achieve sustainable development.
