

TITLE: “Compensating the social damage caused by corruption: an overview of best practices & challenges in implementing UNCAC Article 35”

SHORT DESCRIPTION (no changes)

Panellists from government, civil society and intergovernmental organisations will present their views on the implementation of UNCAC Article 35 and the compensation of the social damage caused by corruption. The event will showcase good practices and lessons learned and discuss recommendations to the COSP.

AGENDA

- UNCAC Article 35: good practices, lessons learned and recommendations By Ioannis Androulakis, Consultant (UNODC)
- The Costa Rican experience in compensating the social damage caused by corruption By Mr. Ronald Viquez Solis, Prosecutor, Office of the Attorney-General of the Republic, Ministry of Justice (Costa Rica)
- Best practices & challenges in compensating the social damage caused by corruption By Juanita Olaya, Independent researcher and consultant (UNCAC Coalition)
- Compensating the social damage in an international context: The UK experience By Phil Mason, Head, Anti-Corruption policy at DfID (UK) - TBC