

UNODC

United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime

BETTER POLICIES FOR BETTER LIVES

SPECIAL EVENT

Effective Protection of Reporting Persons: Experiences, trends and new resource tools

Date: Tuesday, 3 November 2015

Time: 3 – 5 pm

Location: Conference Room D, Pavilion 7 of the Lenexpo Exhibition Complex

Conference of the States Parties to the United Nations Convention against Corruption

Sixth session, 2-6 November 2015, St. Petersburg, Russia

Agenda

- 3:00 - 3:10 Opening and Introduction
Mr. Dimitri Vlassis, Chief, CEB, UNODC
- 3:10 - 3:30 The Resource Guide on Good Practices in the Protection of Reporting Persons & findings from the implementation review mechanism
Presentation and short Q&A session
Ms. Constanze von Söhnen, Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Officer, CEB, UNODC
- 3:30 - 3: 50 Korea's Whistleblower Protection Systems
Presentation and short Q&A session
Mr. Chae-soo Lim, Senior Deputy Director of the Protection & Rewards Division, Anti-Corruption and Civil Rights Commission (ACRC), Republic of Korea
- 3:50 - 4:10 Experiences at the national level - Establishment of a new and consolidated whistleblower regime (exact title tbd)
Presentation and short Q&A session
Mr. Michael Perkins, Assistant Principal Officer, Government Reform Unit, Department of Public Expenditure and Reform, Ireland
- 4:10 - 4:30 Whistleblowing systems and protection in the private sector
Ms. Olajobi Makinwa, Chief, Anti-Corruption & Transparency and Africa, UN Global Compact
- 4: 30 - 4:50 Towards Comprehensive Public and Private Sector Whistleblower Protection: From Commitments to Effective Protection
Ms. Leah Ambler, Legal Analyst/Manager Latin America Outreach, Anti-Corruption Division, OECD
Concluding open discussion on the way forward