

UNODC

United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime

Corruption Risk Assessment: Current approaches and emerging practices

A special side event to discuss about some approaches to assessing and managing corruption risks

Date: Wednesday, 4 November 2015

Time: 13.30– 15.00 pm

Location: Conference Room D, Pavilion 7 of the Lenexpo Exhibition Complex

Conference of the States Parties to the United Nations Convention against Corruption

Sixth session, 2-6 November 2015, St. Petersburg, Russia

Agenda

- 13:30 - 13:35 Opening and Introduction
Mr. Constantine Palicarsky, Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice officer, CEB, UNODC
- 13:35 - 14:00 Measuring corruption: the UNDP experience
Presentation and Q&A session
Mr. Anga Timilsina, Programme Manager of UNDP's Global Anti-Corruption Initiative (GAIN), UNDP
- 14:00 - 14:25 Managing Corruption Risks in Organizations
Presentation and Q&A session
Mr. Constantine Palicarsky, Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice officer, CEB, UNODC.
- 14:25 - 14:40 Ingredients for an Effective Corruption Risk Assessment in the Public Sector
Presentation and Q&A session
Mr. Radu Coticu, Head of Secretariat, Regional Anti-corruption Initiative
- 14:40 - 15:00 Opportunity for discussion and concluding remarks