I. Date and venue

1. In its decision 4/1, entitled “Venue for the sixth session of the Conference of the States Parties to the United Nations Convention against Corruption”, the Conference of the States Parties to the United Nations Convention against Corruption, welcoming the offer of the Government of the Russian Federation to host the sixth session of the Conference, decided that the sixth session would be held in the Russian Federation in 2015.
2. Pursuant to that decision, the sixth session of the Conference will be held at the Lenexpo Exhibition Complex in St. Petersburg, Russian Federation, from 2 to 6 November 2015. A graphic depicting the Centre is provided in annex I.

II. National organizing committee

3. The host Government has appointed a national organizing committee, headed by Alexander Konovalov, Minister of Justice of the Russian Federation.
4. Alexandra Dronova, executive secretary of the national organizing committee, and director of the Department of International Law and Cooperation, Ministry of Justice of the Russian Federation, is in charge of coordinating all organizational aspects of the sixth session of the Conference. She can be contacted during office hours (9 a.m. to 6 p.m. local time) from Monday to Friday. Her contact information is as follows:

Alexandra Dronova
Director, Department of International Law and Cooperation
Ministry of Justice of the Russian Federation
E-mail: unconf2015@minjust.ru

III. Opening ceremony and seating arrangements

5. The opening ceremony will be held on Monday, 2 November 2015, in Conference Hall I (plenary hall) of pavilion 8a of the Lenexpo Exhibition Complex, beginning at 10 a.m. Delegates are requested to be in their seats by 9.45 a.m.
6. For the opening ceremony, each Government delegation will be assigned four seats: two at the table and two in the row behind. Specifically identified seating will be available for other participants in the Conference session.
7. Participants are reminded that mobile telephones should be either switched off or switched to “silent” mode during all proceedings.

IV. Provisional agenda and proposed organization of work

8. The annotated provisional agenda and proposed organization of work of the session are contained in document CAC/COSP/2015/1, available in the six official languages of the United Nations, and on the web page of the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime (UNODC) website dedicated to the sixth session.¹

9. In view of the crucial nature of the matters to be considered by the Conference at the session and the need to reach important decisions, Government representation at the highest possible political level is strongly encouraged.

10. During the Conference, a number of special events will be organized by key partners of the Secretariat. Details on these special events will be provided on the UNODC website.¹

V. Participation and costs

11. According to the rules of procedure for the Conference of the States Parties to the United Nations Convention against Corruption,² the following may take part in the proceedings of the Conference:

- (a) States parties to the Convention;
- (b) States and regional economic integration organizations that have signed the Convention;
- (c) Other States and regional economic integration organizations that have not signed the Convention;
- (d) Representatives of entities and organizations that have received a standing invitation from the General Assembly to participate as observers in the sessions and work of all international conferences convened under its auspices; representatives of United Nations bodies, specialized agencies and funds; and representatives of the functional commissions of the Economic and Social Council;
- (e) Representatives of any other relevant intergovernmental organization;
- (f) Relevant non-governmental organizations having consultative status with the Economic and Social Council;
- (g) Other relevant non-governmental organizations.

12. Participating Governments, intergovernmental organizations and non-governmental organizations are responsible for the costs of participation of their delegates.

VI. Credentials

13. Rule 18 of the rules of procedure, entitled “Submission of credentials”, provides that the credentials of representatives of each State party and the names of the persons constituting the State party’s delegation shall be submitted to the secretariat of the Conference if possible not later than 24 hours in advance of the opening of the session.

² The full text of the rules of procedure is available from www.unodc.org/unodc/en/treaties/CAC/rules-of-procedure.html.

14. The rules of procedure also provide that the credentials shall be issued by the Head of State or Government, by the Minister for Foreign Affairs or by the Permanent Representative to the United Nations of the State party, in accordance with its domestic law or, in the case of a regional economic integration organization, by the competent authority of that organization.

15. Advance scanned copies of credentials should be sent by e-mail to the secretariat of the Conference (uncac.cop@unodc.org).

16. Starting at 10 a.m. on Sunday, 1 November 2015, the original credentials of representatives of each State party and the names of the persons constituting the State party's delegation should be submitted to the office of the secretariat of the Conference, located in pavilion 7 of the Lenexpo Exhibition Complex.

VII. Registration and list of participants

17. The note verbale or letter containing the names of delegates (the official composition of each delegation) should be sent — by e-mail, facsimile or post — to the secretariat of the Conference as soon as possible. Please note that scanned copies of notes verbales or letters that are sent by e-mail will be accepted pending receipt of the original communication.

Postal address: Secretariat of the Conference of the States Parties to the United Nations Convention against Corruption

Facsimile: +43 1 26060 5841
E-mail: uncac.cop@unodc.org

18. Governments, when providing their official delegation list, should ensure that the information on the composition of their delegation includes the individual e-mail addresses of each representative. Providing the individual e-mail addresses will ensure that each representative receives an automatic e-mail response confirming his or her registration. The automatic e-mail response will also contain a link enabling each representative to upload a photograph. Please note that only if both requirements are met (the provision of an e-mail address and the uploading of a photograph) can security passes be pre-printed and ready to be picked up at the registration area. Please note also that:

(a) Participants in the Conference session are requested to collect their passes in person;

(b) Permanent Missions may also collect the passes for all members of their delegation; however, in such cases, the designated collector will need to:

(i) Be in possession of an appropriate authorization, signed by the Permanent Representative or the Chargé d'affaires;

(ii) Be responsible for the delivery of the passes to all members of his/her delegation.

19. Representatives who do not complete the pre-registration procedure must follow the normal procedure of having a photograph taken and a conference pass issued upon their arrival at the Lenexpo Exhibition Complex.

20. As part of the high-level security arrangements, all participants are required to present their invitation or an official communication identifying them as delegates, together with their passport or other official photograph-bearing identity document, at the entrance before proceeding to the registration area located at pavilion 7a to register and obtain their security passes for the session. Passes must be worn visibly at all times in the conference centre during the session. All persons and their bags and briefcases will be screened at the entrance of the conference centre.

21. Registration will begin on Saturday, 31 October, and Sunday, 1 November. On those days, the registration desk will be open from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. From Monday, 2 November, to Wednesday, 4 November, the registration desk will be open from 8 a.m. to 6:30 p.m. On Thursday, 5 November, and Friday, 6 November, the registration desk will be open from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Given the large number of participants expected, delegates arriving before the opening of the session are encouraged to register as early as possible.

Registration of Heads of State or Government and ministers

22. It is strongly recommended that delegations submit in advance the names of ministers or other delegates of similar or higher rank to the secretariat in order to expedite the preparation of VIP badges and minimize inconvenience. VIP badges will be ready for collection by an authorized person at the registration area located in pavilion 7a. Permanent Missions may collect those badges. In such cases, however, the designated collector will need to (a) be in possession of an appropriate authorization, signed by the Permanent Representative or the Chargé d'affaires. Questions regarding VIP badges should be sent by e-mail to Lieutenant Oleg Strelnikov (Oleg.Strelnikov@unvienna.org) of the United Nations Security and Safety Service.

23. All requests for vehicular access permits for Government ministers (only) must be submitted in writing to Lieutenant Oleg Strelnikov (see e-mail information above) of the United Nations Security and Safety Service. Access regulations for the above-mentioned category will be provided, together with vehicle authorization decals.

Registration of members of the press and the media

24. Media representatives are required to apply for accreditation with the United Nations Information Service, in Vienna, preferably in advance of the session. Accreditation is also possible at the press registration counter, located in pavilion 7a. For further information, please see section X below, entitled "Information and the media".

Registration of persons accompanying delegates and participants

25. The names of all persons accompanying delegates or other participants should be submitted to the secretariat as soon as possible. Those persons will be issued a special badge which will allow them access to the Lenexpo Exhibition Complex.

VIII. Languages and documentation

26. The official languages of the Conference session are the six official languages of the United Nations: Arabic, Chinese, English, French, Russian and Spanish. Statements made in any official language during plenary meetings will be interpreted into the other five official languages. Official documents of the session will be made available in all six official languages.

27. Each seat in the conference halls of the conference centre for which simultaneous interpretation is available will be provided with a portable receiving set and headphone. Participants are requested not to remove that equipment from the meeting rooms so that it may be checked periodically and the batteries recharged, if necessary.

28. The secretariat has prepared a number of documents to facilitate consideration of some of the issues on the provisional agenda for the session. Those documents may be downloaded from the UNODC website or from the official Russian website (www.uncorruption.ru).

29. In furtherance of the secretariat's efforts to reduce expenditure and support endeavours to limit environmental impact as a result of the session, documentation will be available at the conference venue in limited quantities. Each delegation will receive a single, complete set of the documents in the language (or languages) of its choice. Delegates can access these documents on the UNODC website, as well as from the VIC Online Services. Delegates are therefore kindly requested to bring their own copies of the pre-session documents to the session.

30. Memory sticks containing pre-session documentation and publications related to the Conference will be distributed to participants at the registration desk when they are issued their badges.

31. The main documents distribution counter will be located near conference room D in pavilion 7 of the conference centre. At the documents distribution counter, each delegation will be assigned an individual box in which documents issued during the session will be placed.

32. To determine exact requirements for in-session documentation, each delegation is requested to inform the persons working at the documents distribution counter of its requirements, specifying the number of copies of each document required and the language or languages in which it wishes to receive the documents during the session. The number of copies requested should be sufficient to cover all requirements, as it will not be possible to request additional copies.

IX. Submission of papers

33. Copies of national statements and position papers prepared by participating States will be distributed during the session in the languages and quantities provided by Governments. It is suggested that the following minimum number of copies be provided:

Language combination	Minimum number of copies
	Arabic	Chinese	English	French	Russian	Spanish
Arabic and English only	175	–	425	–	–	–
Chinese and English only	–	10	425	–	–	–
English only	–	–	600	–	–	–
English and French only	–	–	425	175	–	–
English, French and Spanish only	–	–	375	125	–	100
English and Russian only	–	–	425	–	100	–
English and Spanish only	–	–	425	–	–	175

34. If the suggested number of copies cannot be provided, 300 copies is the absolute minimum necessary for distribution to cover one copy per delegation and limited copies for secretariat use. Business centres, located in the various hotels and on location, offer reproduction facilities on a commercial basis. However, it is strongly recommended that delegations bring sufficient quantities of documents to the conference centre well before the opening of the session.

35. Specialized agencies, intergovernmental organizations and non-governmental organizations may also prepare background information on specific questions pertaining to the subjects under consideration (see paras. 33 and 34 above for the recommended languages and quantities).

36. Informational copies of all national statements and position papers, as well as other relevant documents, should be sent by e-mail as soon as possible to the secretariat (uncac.cop@unodc.org).

X. Information and the media

37. Media facilities, including a press centre in pavilion 8 and a press briefing room in pavilion 7a, will be available at the Lenexpo Exhibition Complex.

38. Media representatives wishing to cover the event must apply for accreditation before or during the session by contacting the Accreditation Office of the United Nations Information Service in Vienna:

Ms. Veronika Crowe-Mayerhofer
 United Nations Information Service
 Telephone: +43 1 26060 3342
 Mobile: +43 699 1459 3342
 Facsimile: +43 1 26060 7 3342
 E-mail: press@unvienna.org

39. Accreditation will be granted upon presentation of valid press credentials, including:

(a) A completed online media accreditation form (available from www.unis.unvienna.org/unis/en/media/media_accreditation.html);

(b) A letter of assignment on official letterhead of a media organization, signed by the publisher/assignment editor, editor-in-chief or bureau chief, specifying the name and functional title of the journalist. Unsigned letters or e-mails will not be accepted;

(c) A photocopy of a valid press card/work pass.

40. Credentials may be sent as attachments to the online form or as e-mail attachments to press@unvienna.org.

41. Media representatives covering the session should contact Ms. Veronika Crowe-Mayerhofer to provide exact details regarding the equipment that they wish to bring to the Russian Federation, as some equipment may require special permission from the national authorities.

42. Starting on Saturday, 31 October 2015, at 10 a.m., media representatives can receive accreditation by applying in person at the press registration counter, located in pavilion 7a. Press passes will be issued upon presentation of an official photograph-bearing identity document. Only those representatives of the media who have special conference press passes will have access to meetings, special events and the press working area.

43. Further information on the session is available on the web page of UNODC dedicated to the sixth session.

XI. Visas, travel and hotel reservations

44. A valid visa and passport are required for entry into the Russian Federation. No special visas are offered for Conference participants. All diplomats, employees of international organizations and foreign governmental bodies, as well as those travelling for business purposes, will be required to undergo the standard procedure for acquiring visas through embassies and consulates of the Russian Federation located outside of that country. Conference participants are advised to apply for visas well in advance. Please contact a Russian embassy or consulate in your home country for more information. Related information on visa requirements may be found at www.visahouse.com.

45. Commercial airlines enforce strict limits regarding the size and weight of baggage. Passengers should independently familiarize themselves with relevant limits on the weight of baggage and carry-on items prior to departure in order to avoid unnecessary expense or complications. In the interest of air safety, passengers are not permitted to transport dangerous items or substances either on their person or in checked baggage. You can familiarize yourself with the list of imports subject to written declaration, as well as the procedure for completing passenger customs declarations, on the website of Pulkovo International Airport-St. Petersburg (www.pulkovoairport.ru/en/passengers/security/customs).

46. Pursuant to the host country agreement signed by the United Nations and the Government of the Russian Federation regarding the arrangements for the session, all delegates designated to the Conference will not be charged a visa fee.

47. Participants from States in which the Russian Federation does not maintain an embassy or consulate and who require a supporting document from the Government of the Russian Federation for the issuance of a transit visa to reach the Russian Federation as their final destination should contact the national organizing committee at the address provided in paragraph 4 above.

48. Participants having difficulties obtaining visas are advised to contact the national organizing committee at the address provided in paragraph 4 above.

Accommodation

49. Participants are responsible for making their own hotel reservations for the Conference session (see annex II for a list of officially recommended hotels).

50. Only the hotels listed in annex II will offer the following services during the session: security services provided by the host Government; and a shuttle bus service to take participants to the Lenexpo Exhibition Complex every morning and return them to their hotels every evening.

Airport reception

51. A welcome area, fast-track visitors' entry and information desk will be set up at Pulkovo International Airport to assist participants arriving for the Conference session.

Transportation to and from hotels

52. A shuttle bus service between the airport and the officially recommended hotels of the session will be available free of charge to participants. Taxicabs and rental cars are also available at the airport.

53. Shuttle buses will transport participants to and from the officially recommended hotels every morning and every evening during the session.

Flight information

54. The organizing committee is working on designating an official air and rail carrier of the session. The details will be published on the Russian conference website before 1 September 2015.

XII. Facilities at the Lenexpo Exhibition Complex

55. The following facilities will be available to participants at the Lenexpo Exhibition Complex:

- (a) Delegates lounge, with a coffee and snack bar;
- (b) Cybercafe;
- (c) Wireless connectivity, available throughout the conference centre at no additional cost to participants;
- (d) First aid room;
- (e) Bank and post office with an automated teller machine (ATM);
- (f) Travel assistance: a professional conference organizer will have a representative at the conference centre for participants wishing to reconfirm or change flights, rent cars or book tours;
- (g) Information counter for participants.

XIII. Useful information about the Russian Federation

Medical insurance

56. It is strongly recommended that, prior to departure, participants secure international medical insurance for the period of participation.

Geography

57. St. Petersburg is the largest city in Europe that is not a capital. Since the beginning of the nineteenth century, it has had the fourth largest population in Europe, at times exceeding Berlin, Vienna, Naples and Moscow, but remaining behind Paris and London.

58. The territory under St. Petersburg's jurisdiction totals 1,439 square km. It is located on the eastern side of the Gulf of Finland, the easternmost arm of the Baltic Sea.

59. Lying at the intersection of various sea, river and land routes, St. Petersburg is the Russian Federation's gateway to Europe and the country's strategic centre, one of the closest points to the countries of the European Union.

60. It is home to the representative offices of international organizations, consulates of various nations and the offices of federal ministries and agencies.

61. St. Petersburg is the administrative centre of the Northwestern Federal District, which includes the Republic of Karelia; the Komi Republic; the Arkhangelsk, Vologda, Kaliningrad, Leningrad, Murmansk, Novgorod and Pskov regions; and the Nenets Autonomous Area.

62. St. Petersburg is the most recently founded of the major European cities. Lying on the sixtieth parallel, it is also the largest city located this far north. St. Petersburg is at a similar latitude to Oslo, southern Greenland, and Anchorage, Alaska (United States of America).

63. St. Petersburg has more bridges than any other city in Europe, and is runner-up in the number of canals and islands. If you include the suburbs, there are 64 rivers, 48 canals, 170 km of coastline, about 100 islands and 800 bridges.

64. The city boasts 2,000 libraries, 221 museums, more than 80 theatres, 100 concert associations, 45 galleries and exhibition halls, 62 cinemas and 80 cultural organizations. The city hosts around 100 festivals and competitions in culture and the arts each year, more than 50 of which are international.

Climate

65. St. Petersburg lies further to the north than any other city of comparable size. Because it is located so far north and so close to the sea, the city experiences certain unique weather conditions, such as very short days in the winter, the absence of darkness (“white nights”) in the summer (beginning in late May and ending in mid-July), and frequent and drastic changes in the weather. Owing to its proximity to the sea, the city has a damp climate, with fairly warm summers and long and moderately cold winters. The average temperature is -8 °C in the winter and +18 °C in the summer. On particularly dry and hot days, the air temperature can reach +25 °C to +30 °C. Given the likelihood of sudden changes in weather conditions in St. Petersburg, we recommend that participants prepare ahead of time for sudden changes in temperature and weather.

66. The average temperature in November in St. Petersburg is 0 °C (32 °F).

Language

67. Russian is an official language in the Russian Federation. Hotel staff usually speak English.

Currency

68. The national currency of the Russian Federation is the rouble. In the Russian Federation, all transactions are made in roubles, including bank card transactions.

69. Currency exchanges can be found at Pulkovo International Airport, and at major hotels and banks throughout the city. All banks buy and sell dollars and euros. A few will also exchange British pounds. Exchange rates may differ depending on the bank. Please be aware that some banks may charge a commission fee for exchanging money; some banks may also ask that you provide a form of identification, such as your passport.

70. Major credit cards (Visa, MasterCard, American Express, Diners Club) and traveller’s cheques in major currencies are generally accepted in large hotels, restaurants and department stores, as well as in several large stores. Traveller’s cheques and bank notes in all major currencies may be exchanged at all commercial banks and most hotels and foreign exchange counters. ATM services are also available.

71. Although the majority of restaurants and many stores in St. Petersburg accept bank cards, we recommend carrying cash as well.

72. The following contact numbers are available in the event your card is lost or stolen:

American Express: +7 (800) 200 9449

Diners Club: +1 (514) 877 1577, +7 (800) 200 6205

Discover: +1 (801) 902 3100

MasterCard: +1 (636) 722 7111, +7 (800) 555 0269

Visa: +1 (303) 967 1096, +7 (812) 363 2400, ext. 866 654 0164

Time

73. The time zone of St. Petersburg is Greenwich Mean Time (GMT) +3 hours.

Taxes and tipping

74. Value added tax (VAT) is charged on the sale of goods and services at a standard rate of 18 per cent. Some items are levied at a lower rate of 10 per cent. These include certain food items, children's clothing and shoes, and some medical items. The quoted price for goods will always include VAT. Foreign nationals have to pay this tax on all purchases; it is not possible to claim back the tax when leaving the country.

75. In the Russian Federation, it is customary to tip 10-15 per cent of the total bill, depending on the level of service. In hotels, it is customary to tip the equivalent of $1-2 for porter or housekeeping services.

Electricity

76. Electrical outlets in the Russian Federation operate on a voltage of 220 volts and a frequency of 50 Hz.

Telephone services and useful telephone numbers

77. Telephone services are available in hotels, restaurants and cafes. Prepaid mobile telephone cards are available at hotels and local shops. Dialling is as follows:

For local calls: +7 + city code + number

(For example, for a local call in St. Petersburg, dial +7 + (812) + number)

For international calls: 00 + country code + number.

78. Flight information may be obtained from Pulkovo International Airport by accessing the following website: www.pulkovoairport.ru.

79. Information on tourism may be obtained from the official tourism website of the Russian Federation (www.visit-petersburg.ru).

Postal, facsimile and Internet services

80. Postal and facsimile facilities are available at post offices and in most major hotels. Internet services are also available at most major hotels, as well as in cybercafes around St. Petersburg and at the Lenexpo Exhibition Complex.

Business hours

81. Government offices are open from 9 or 10 a.m. until 5 or 6 p.m. on weekdays. Most shops are open seven days a week. Some shops may operate from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m., with a break between 2 and 3 p.m. Department stores are usually open from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. without a break. Restaurants typically open from noon to midnight and do not have a break. Museums are usually closed on either Monday or Tuesday. Most museums close the entrance doors 30 minutes or an hour before closing time, and may have shorter hours on the day before their day off. Banking hours are from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. from Monday to Friday and from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. on Saturday.
