

UNODC

United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime

CONFERENCE OF THE STATES PARTIES TO THE UNITED NATIONS CONVENTION AGAINST CORRUPTION, SEVENTH SESSION
Vienna, Austria, 6-10 November 2017

SPECIAL EVENT

The Brazilian Experience in Fighting Corruption through Leniency Programs and Plea Agreements and its impacts in Latin America

[7th November 2017, 1.30 pm – 3.00 pm.]
[Press Room]

I. INTRODUCTION

The Side Event aims to describe the recent developments in Brazil in the fight against corruption, showing the impact of the 2013 Anticorruption Act and the civil and administrative penalties to the corporations and the experiences with plea agreements and leniency programs. The presentation also intends to demonstrate the importance of international cooperation, considering the efforts of tackling corruption in Latin America.

II. PANELLISTS

MONICA NICIDA GARCIA

Associate Federal Prosecutor General and Head of the Anticorruption Chamber

DENISE NEVES ABADE

Federal Circuit Prosecutor and Deputy Head of the International Cooperation Unit

CONSTANTINE PALICARSKY

Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Officer, UNODC

III. FORMAT AND AGENDA

Short Opening and Introduction

CONSTANTINE PALICARSKY

Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Officer, UNODC: UNCAC as a framework for enhanced international cooperation

DENISE NEVES ABADE

Federal Circuit Prosecutor and Deputy Head of the International Cooperation Unit

General Concepts

Legislative framework and its historic advancement

Recent developments in Brazil in the fight against corruption

MONICA NICIDA GARCIA

Associate Federal Prosecutor General and Head of the Anticorruption Chamber

Case Studies

Statistics involving Leniency Programs

International cooperation