

Launch of the Anti-corruption regional platform presented at a CSOs side event at the 7th Session of the COSP to the UNCAC

DATE: 7TH November, 2017

Presenter: Jackline Were, Transparency International Kenya

Venue: Vienna

Africa Anti-corruption Regional Platform

- The Africa Anti-corruption Regional platform resulted from a proposal by UNODC to the UNCAC Coalition to establish two platforms: one in the African region and one in the Southeast European region

Objectives of the ARP

To foster;

- Dissemination of information about UNCAC-related initiatives of African CSOs including other stakeholders working in the anti-corruption field; and
- Exchange of information and collaboration among the CSOs in the region

The platform

Serves as a virtual publication and dissemination platform where the groups are able to;

- Explore the profiles and contact details of a large number of CSOs most of those that were trained by UNODC, the UNCAC Coalition and TI during trainings and multi-stakeholder workshops on UNCAC and its Review Mechanism
- Learn from the experiences of other CSOs regarding their involvement in the implementation of the UNCAC and its Review Mechanism by reading about their contribution, obstacles they encountered as well as lessons learned and best practices

TI-Kenya's role

- Liaised with NGOs within Africa and other stakeholders to introduce the platforms and gathered data through a standard form
- Gathered information on the NGOs (planned) contribution to the UNCAC implementation and its review mechanism
- Liaised with NGOs to validate information on profiles

- Mapped out a total of 107 institutions
- Sent out a factsheet to gather information from the organizations -31 sent feedback
- Factsheet- gathered information on;
 - Logo of the organization, Mission and vision
 - General description of the CSO work in the anti-corruption area
 - Specific description of the CSO work in link with the UNCAC
 - Specific description of the CSO work in link with the review mechanism of the UNCAC
