Effective Control of Corruption through Systemic Prevention and Public Engagement: The Approach of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region of the People’s Republic of China

Date: 16 December 2019 (Monday)

Time: 1300 – 1400hrs

Venue: CR6, Abu Dhabi National Exhibition Centre

Description of event:

Corruption is still a major threat around the globe. Many governments and leaders of foresight make great efforts to curb corruption by developing effective strategies in fighting and preventing corruption. Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (HKSAR) of the People’s Republic of China (PRC) has in place an effective anti-corruption regime that goes beyond investigation. The Hong Kong’s anti-corruption regime, in particular its preventive measures in corruption risk management and civic participation embodies the relevant articles set out in the United Nations Convention against Corruption (UNCAC), especially in advocating the existence of coordinated anti-corruption policies and practices to prevent corruption in all sectors.

This special event organised by the Independent Commission Against Corruption, HKSAR of PRC will encourage international exchanges on the effective strategies and best practices of preventing corruption through system control and public engagement.
