

Management of recovered assets in Africa: Challenges and opportunities

Venue: Nile Valley Hall, Sharm El-Sheikh, Egypt

Organizer: The Civil Society Legislative Advocacy Centre (CISLAC), Africa Network for Environment and Economic Justice (ANEEJ), Civil Forum for Asset Recovery e.V. (CiFAR)

PROGRAM OF EVENT
Time	Session	Facilitation
09:00 - 09:10	Welcome remarks	UNODC representative Olga Ametistova, GIZ Advisor Global Program Combating Illicit Financial Flows (remote) Ladidi B. Mohammed, Head Asset Recovery and Management Unit Nigeria's Ministry of Justice Alejandro Salas, Head of Global Movement, TI Secretariat, Berlin
09:10 - 09:20	CiFAR provide an overview of asset management and the role of civil society. This will cover principles relating to the management of recovered assets and examples of mechanisms.	Jackson Oldfield, Director CiFAR - Civil Forum for Asset Recovery e.V.
09:20 - 09:30	Asset Disposal and Implementation of GFAR Principles: Lessons from the Monitoring of Recovered Assets through Transparency and Accountability (MANTRA) project.	David Ugolor, Executive Director ANEEJ - Africa network for environment and economic justice
09:30 - 09:40	The experience and lessons learnt from Nigeria and Kenya about accountable recovered assets' management with the emphasis on domestically recovered assets.	Auwal Ibrahim Musa, Executive Director CISLAC - Civil Society Legislative Advocacy Centre
09:40 - 09:50	Q & A	Harriet Wachira, Program Coordinator TI - Transparency International Kenya
09:50 - 10:00	Concluding remarks – next frontiers in asset recovery	Harriet Wachira, Program Coordinator TI - Transparency International Kenya