

Country name	Family name(s)	First name(s)	Present position	Previous positions/Relevant experience
Australia	Taylor	Alex	Assistant Secretary, International Crime - Policy and Engagement Branch, Commonwealth Attorney-General's Department	Management of branch responsible for legislation, policy and international engagement in relation to Australia's cooperative efforts against crime; Administration of crime cooperation legislation including the Extradition Act 1988, the Mutual Assistance in Criminal Matters Act 1987 and the International Transfer of Prisoners Act 1997, Negotiation and implementation of bilateral and multilateral treaties relating to international cooperation, transnational crime and corruption; Leading engagement in a number of multilateral forums aimed at combating transnational crime and corruption, such as the Conference of the Parties to the United Nations Convention against Transnational Organised Crime, the Conference of States Parties to the United Nations Convention against Corruption, G20 and APEC; Developing and implementing first National Anti-Corruption Plan; Managing financial obligations to and cooperation with the International Criminal Court; Previous experience in international law, criminal justice, international capacity building, anti-corruption and international criminal justice.
	Butler	Kieran	Principal Legal Officer, Anti-Corruption Section, International Crime Cooperation Division Commonwealth Attorney-General's Department	Director of the Anti-Corruption Section responsible for Australia's international engagement on anti-corruption, development of Anti-Corruption Plan; Leading engagement in the UNCAC Implementation Review Mechanism, including recent country review; Leading engagement in the G20 and APEC Anti-Corruption Working Groups; Providing technical legal assistance on a range of transnational crime types to aid recipient countries (including assisting with drafting legislation, training lawyers, police and prosecutors, and developing relevant policies); Leading international engagement in a range of transnational crime focused fora; Developing and implementing a range of legislation designed to combat transnational crime, particularly terrorism; Working in a Ministerial office providing advice to the Minister on a range of international law and national security issues; Working as a Judge's associate in an Australian state district court.

Country name	Family name(s)	First name(s)	Present position	Previous positions/Relevant experience
	Ritchie	Peter	Senior Policy Adviser, Anti-Corruption International Crime Policy and Engagement Branch, Attorney-General's Department	Providing anti-corruption advice covering Australia's domestic and international policies; National delegate to the APEC Anti-Corruption and Transparency Experts Task Force; National representative in anti-corruption fora hosted by the G20, UNODC, FATF and the OECD; Private sector engagement, including developing and implementing the APEC Code of Conduct for Business; Experience of the UNCAC Implementation Review Mechanism by participating in its design, and as the Senior Adviser for Australia's own UNCAC review; Designed and implemented Australia's first corruption risk assessment; Involved in the first National Anti-Corruption Plan, including multi-agency coordination and leadership, fraud and corruption investigation, and international engagement strategy; Previously provided capacity building assistance covering many elements of UNCAC in Melanesia and the Pacific islands, particularly Papua New Guinea, Solomon Islands, Vanuatu, Tonga and Nauru - key responsibilities included designing and implementing policies, procedures and guidelines, promoting private sector and civil society participation, preventing money laundering, establishing financial intelligence units, enabling asset recovery, preventing transfers of proceeds of corruption, encouraging multi-agency cooperation with law enforcement, and designing and hosting multiple international conferences to share information and expertise in anti-money laundering, corruption and environmental crime; Previous positions included management of the use of proceeds of crime laws for the use of confiscated assets, developing and implementing crime prevention policies.
	Hall	Emily	Senior Legal Officer, Anti-Corruption Section, Attorney-General's Department	Responsibility for international engagement on anti-corruption and development of first National Anti-Corruption Plan; Providing technical legal advice and assisting with policy and program development on countering corruption both domestically and internationally; Previous experience in criminal justice, international capacity building and human rights law.
	Petty	Michael	Law Enforcement Advisor, Anti-Money Laundering Assistance Team, Attorney-General's Department	Assisting with the development and delivery of anti-money laundering assistance programs including training courses, conferences, case mentoring, legislation review and high level briefing on anti-money laundering processes; Assisting in Financial Action Task Force (FAFT) Mutual Evaluation Report (MER) follow ups including development of strategic implementation plan for addressing identified deficiencies; Expertise on criminal assets confiscation, anti-money laundering including the use of non-conviction based asset confiscation measures applied to a wide range of type of crimes including narcotics, fraud, terrorist financing, human trafficking and corruption offences; Working directly with policy makers and practitioners in investigation and litigation agencies including specialist government agencies that focus solely on anti-corruption; Bilateral assistance, multilateral workshops and training programs jointly conducted with other international donors

Cairns	Louise Amy	Principal Legal Officer, Transnational Crime and Treaties Section, Attorney-General's Department	Responsibility for negotiating Australia's bilateral treaties on extradition, mutual assistance and international transfer of prisoners; Providing advice on Australia's policy position on a range of transnational crime issues and facilitating Australia's contribution to key international criminal justice forums; Previous relevant experience included providing capacity building assistance to South Asian countries in the areas of transnational crimes and international crime cooperation including advice on legislative gaps and delivering prosecutor/legislative drafter study tour
Joseph	Muriel	Senior Legal Officer, Anti-Corruption Section, Attorney-General's Department	International engagement on anti-corruption; Development of Australia's National Anti-Corruption Plan and development of policy on countering corruption domestically and internationally; Previous relevant experience includes international engagement on transnational crime, negotiation of bilateral treaties on international crime cooperation and development of domestic policy and legislation on range of criminal justice matters
Wang	Mei-Lin	Legal Officer, Anti-Corruption Section, Attorney-General's Department	Responsibility for international engagement on anti-corruption and development of Australia's first National Anti-Corruption Plan; Providing technical legal advice; Assisting with policy and program development on countering corruption both domestically and internationally; Lawyer admitted to practice in the ACT Supreme Court; Previous experience with international crime cooperation laws having worked to administer and reform Australia's extradition and mutual assistance framework; Previous experience in Parliamentary processes working with the House of
Kiley	Andrew James	Principal Legal Officer, Legislation, Policy and Coordination Section, Attorney-General's Department	Representatives Standing Committee on Social Policy and Legal Affairs Responsibility for managing Australia's international cooperation legislation including extradition, mutual assistance and international transfer of prisoners framework; Progressing legislative amendments and providing advice to the Government; Previous experience in criminal issues as well as security issues; Previous extensive legislative experience having been responsible for progressing a number of criminal law and international crime cooperation pieces of legislation; Previous position in the Australian's Government's mutual assistance casework

