

Country name	Family name(s)	First name(s)	Present position	Previous positions/Relevant experience
Congo	Bakouetana	Rufin - Arsène	Head, Department for Cooperation and Risk Management Research (DECGR), National Commission for Fight against Corruption, Extortion and Fraud (CNLCCF)	Prepare and organize study missions; Monitor implementation of studies by national and international consultants; Prepare weekly, monthly, quarterly and annual reports; Propose risk management mechanisms associated with plan implementation; Assess the level of perceived corruption and the progress made in governance; Implementation of international and national cooperation; Provide technical support to any public or private body wishing to incorporate means of fight against corruption; Attended various anti-corruption seminars and specialized missions (procurement, forests, health, justice, finances, taxes); Monitoring the development of the Action Plan to Fight against Corruption and the Anti Corruption; Secretary General of Public procurement unit; Member of the group on procurement of intellectual services on governance with the national representation of the World Bank; Participates in implementation of action plan for the fight against corruption; Member of ad hoc expert group on African Governance.
	Itoua	Gilbert	Professor of International Economic Law and International Business Law, Marien Ngouabi University	Research professor of International Law; Administrative and Legal Adviser of the Minister of Mines and Geology; Commissioner of the National Commission for Fight against Corruption, Extortion and Fraud; Chief Legal Officer in negotiating the reinstatement of the Congo to the Kimberley Process in Brussels; Drafting of mining contracts, foreign direct investment law; Teamwork within the National Commission for the Fight against Corruption, Extortion and Fraud investigations and inquiries in the areas of procurement, health of forest governance.
	Nzobabela	Simon Pierre	Commissioner, Member of the National Commission for Fight against Corruption, Extortion and Fraud (CNLCCF)	Fighting against corruption, extortion and fraud by raising awareness; Conduct inquiries and investigations to identify cases of corruption, fraud and extortion in all sectors of society; Popularize the conventions, laws and programs on corruption; - Implement the government's plan to fight against corruption; - Provide technical assistance to any public or private organization

			seeking the establishment of an internal device to effectively fight against bribery, extortion and fraud; Coordination of the national fight against corruption with the completion of the first study on corruption in Congo, the development of National Action Plan to fight against corruption; Participation in Global Forum on Corruption in Johannesburg; Member of the African Union against corruption; Training at ENA (France) and the European Anti-Fraud Office (OLAF, Brussels).
Nkouka	Merlin Noel	Member of the National Commission for Fight against Corruption, Extortion and Fraud (CNLCCF)	Implementation of the Government Action Plan through a system of Monitoring and Evaluation of Projects / Programs; Analysis of the phenomenon of corruption in Congo; Application of tools and methods to prevent and fight against various forms of corruption and inquiries and investigations; Involvement of civil society and the private sector as part of the charter signed by all parties; Development of a program of activities and an Annual Report; Extensive experience in designing, planning and implementation of projects / programs in various fields; Administrative and financial management of projects; Involvement in the process of public procurement and budget; Develop a map of communication and outreach strategies.
Tchikaya	Bernard	Commissioner, Member of the National Commission for Fight against Corruption, Extortion and Fraud (CNLCCF)	Awareness raising; Conduct surveys and investigations to detect cases of corruption and related offenses; Disseminate the conventions, laws and Plan of Action on Corruption; Implement the government's action plan to fight against corruption; Provide technical assistance to any public or private organization seeking the establishment of an internal control against corruption and related offenses; Heading inquiries and investigations of corruption and fraud in the Autonomous Port of Pointe Noire; Coordinator of the national missions of investigation on corruption and strict enforcement of the forestry code in the forestry sector; Member of the commission of inquiries and investigations on public markets in the infrastructure sector of the national program "municipalisations accelerated"; Participation in various meetings and expert seminars.

Ndembe

Noël

Head, Legal and Administrative Department, National Commission for Fight against Corruption, Extortion and Fraud (CNLCCF)

Prepare legal documents on the fight against corruption, bribery and fraud; Prepare draft legislation necessary to implement the action plan to fight against corruption, the United Nations Convention against Corruption and the African Union on the prevention and fight against corruption; Analyze and compile all the legal texts with a direct link to the fight against corruption; Evaluate the impact of legal regulations on the fight against corruption; Draft weekly, monthly, quarterly and annual program of activities; Prepare the missions of inquiry and investigation; - Develop, in collaboration with other departments, plans and training programs; Extensive experience in administrative, financial and human resources management; Extensive experience in project management; Participation in various meetings and expert seminars.