

Country name	Family name(s)	First name(s)	Present position	Previous positions/Relevant experience
The Cook Islands	Saunders	Kim Bernadette Frances	Solicitor-General, Crown Law Office	Principal legal advisor to the Government and Head of the Crown Law Office; Providing advise on public law issues arising out of the exercise and control of governmental power (cabinet and executive) and public sector (ministry's); Representing the Crown as most senior trial advocate on criminal, civil and administrative law litigation; The Financial Intelligence Unit is directly responsible to the Solicitor-General in the exercise of its functions and powers under the Financial Transactions Reporting Act 2004: detection and prosecution of serious financial crime/fraud/financing of terrorism/money laundering and other serious offending; Responsible for all applications under the Proceeds of Crime Act 2003; Provide ongoing assistance and advice to the Police on investigation and evidencial sufficiency; 30 years experience as legal advisor to the Crown in New Zealand; Previously prosecuted approximately 200 trials including serious and complex fraud/money laundering as prosecutor at Serious Fraud Office, New Zealand and as independent counsel; Numerous appearances at highest appellate level; Responsible for all applications under New Zealand Proceeds of Crime Act (2008-2010) while at the Crown Law Office New Zealand.