

Country name	Family name(s)	First name(s)	Present position	Previous positions/Relevant experience
Lesotho	Thoahlane	Leshele Abel	Director General, Directorate on Corruption and Economic Offences (DCEO)	Implementation of the anti-corruption strategy of the Government of Lesotho. Previous positions held: Commissioner of Labour, Ambassador of Lesotho to the Netherlands, Luxemburg, Switzerland, Belgium, the UN in Geneva and to the USA, also accredited to Mexico and Brazil. Principal Secretary in the Ministries of Labour and Finance respectively. Cabinet Minister in the Ministries of Health and Finance; member of the Independent Electoral Commission (IEC) from 2000 to 2008. Previous positions on the international plane comprise inter alia the post of Executive Secretary of the African Capacity Building Foundation (ACBF) based in Harare, Zimbabwe.
	Ramokhoro	Litelu Josheph	Director for Public Education and Corruption Prevention, Directorate on Corruption and Economic Offences (DCEO)	Development and implementation of public education programmes on anti-corruption; examination of operational systems of institutions and proposition of practical measures against incentives of corruption. Identification of research problems on corruption and facilitation of respective scientific studies; exploration of strategic partnerships with other institutions and sectors for the effective implementation of the Directorate's mandate. Previously served as Acting Director-General of DCEO. Participated in numerous international, regional and national anti-corruption conferences, fora and meetings as well as in anti-corruption training programmes.
	Thibeli	Thabiso Silas Jobo	Chief Investigation Officer, Directorate on Corruption and Economic Offences (DCEO)	Management and supervision of investigations and attendance to major investigations undertaken by the Directorate; liaison with other sections for technical support to enable investigation of cases; coordination of in-service training for staff; maintenance of professional discipline within the investigation; establishment of relevant evidence for cases; evaluation of investigations work performance for development needs. Previously held the post of Superintendent Police Officer, Lesotho Mounted Police.

Lehloenyana	Lechesa	Chief Intelligence Officer, Directorate on Corruption and Economic Offences (DCEO)	Supervision of crime intelligence activities and intelligence collection, Supervision of reception and recording of reports of allegations of corruption, analysis, processing and monitoring intelligence collection strategies. Provision of technical and intelligence support to other divisions of DCEO, coordination of the processing of all reports. Previously worked at the Police Force, and Senior Intelligence Officer at the National Security Service.
Mohlalefi	Sematha Vincent	Chief Corruption Prevention Officer, Directorate on Corruption and Economic Offences (DCEO)	Examination of systems and procedures of public and private bodies in order to discover corrupt practices; development of corruption indices in both the public and private sector. Advising heads of both private and public bodies on procedural and systematic anti-corruption measures. Previously served as Senior Investigator at the Police Complaints Authority, investigating complaints by members of the public against the Police; and as Police Officer (Inspector), Lesotho Mounted Police.
Mosoeunyane	Liteboho	Principal Investigation Officer, Directorate on Corruption and Economic Offences (DCEO)	Supervision of dockets handled by the Directorate, handling and mobilisation of informants, investigation on reported cases, execution of the Directorate's operations as directed by the Chief Investigations Officer. Previously worked as research assistant in several qualitative social science studies. Experienced in data analysis, interviewing and classifying data trends, preparation of reports and witnesses' statements.
Lithoko	Lisema Elvis	Principal Investigation Officer, Directorate on Corruption and Economic Offences (DCEO)	Conduct of investigations of economic offences, fraud and money laundering, interviewing witnesses, searching suspects and property keeping of dockets and evidence. Previously served as Counsel (Advocate of the High Court) in private practice, representing clients in the courts of both civil and criminal matters and rendering legal advice.

Lebaka	Mahao Stanford	Principal Investigation Officer, Directorate on Corruption and Economic Offences (DCEO)	Investigation of corruption and fraud cases, interviewing of suspects and witnesses, searching of premises, taking statements of witnesses and suspects, auditing of financial statements to detect errors and misappropriation of funds, writing management letters and discussing them with Directors, formal confrontation of culprits and writing audit summaries.
Mokhochane	Mohau	Principal Investigation Officer, Directorate on Corruption and Economic Offences (DCEO)	In-depth investigation of reported cases of corruption and economic offences, conducting witness and suspect interviews, search and arrest of suspects.
Ramoholi	Refiloe	Principal Investigation Officer, Directorate on Corruption and Economic Offences (DCEO)	Investigation of all cases of corruption under the Prevention of Corruption and Economic Offences Act. Previous offices held: Registrar of Births and Deaths in the Ministry of Local Government and Chieftainship, Senior Investigation Officer since in the office of Ombudsman.
Monare	Abiel Lazarus	Principal Investigation Officer, Directorate on Corruption and Economic Offences (DCEO)	Supervision of dockets handled by the Directorate, handling and mobilization of informants, investigation of reported cases of corruption, preparation of reports and witnesses statements, providing evidence of fact and opinion. Experienced in auditing and coordination of Lesotho Postal Services and Lesotho Post Bank as Assistant Controller. Previously served as Internal Audit Special Investigator of the National University of Lesotho, Internal Auditor and Assistant Accountant.
Phasumane	Tau	Principal Investigation Officer, Directorate on Corruption and Economic Offences (DCEO)	Investigation of reported cases of corruption and economic offences, collection of evidence through interviewing and recording witnesses statements, interviewing of suspects, search and arrest of suspects and presenting the docket to prosecution as well as testifying before the courts of law. Served in the Lesotho Mounted Police Service.

Molato	Mabasia	Principal Intelligence Officer, Directorate on Corruption and Economic Offences (DCEO)	Analysis of information to establish acts of corruption or economic offences, conduct of preliminary investigations, rendering legal advice on corruption-related matters, conduct of interviews and taking statements of potential witnesses. Previous offices held: Field Intelligence Officer and Legal Advisor at the One National Security Service (NSS). Experience in collection and analysis of information for intelligence reports.
Likotsi	Tsotang	Principal Intelligence Officer, Directorate on Corruption and Economic Offences (DCEO)	Analysis of information to establish acts of corruption or economic offences, conduct of preliminary investigations, collecting intelligence material on economic crimes, carrying out surveillance on suspects of economic crimes and drafting summary reports of reported economic crimes. Previous offices held: Teacher, Intelligence Collector and Security Analyst at the National Security Service.
Mohlatsane	Moabinyane	Principal Intelligence Officer, Directorate on Corruption and Economic Offences (DCEO)	Analysis of information to establish acts of corruption or economic offences, conduct of preliminary investigations, interpretation and analysis of financial statements and audit reports, conduct of interviews and taking statements of potential witnesses. Previous offices held: Assistant Auditor, Financial Department, and Performance Auditor, Department of Performances, both at the Office of the Auditor General. Experience in performance auditing and auditing financial statements of the Government of Lesotho and donor-funded projects.