

Country Name	Family Name(S)	First Name(S)	Present Position	Previous positions/Relevant experience
Ghana
	Honyenuga	Clemence Jackson	Justice of the Court of Appeal, Judicial Service	As an appellate judge, my duties are enshrined in the 1992 constitution and the courts act, 1993 as amended, with jurisdiction to hear civil and criminal appeals from the lower courts. For civil jurisdiction, appeals are heard from the circuit and the high courts. For criminal jurisdiction, appeals are heard from the high court. Aside, i sit as an additional high court judge on narcotics, robbery and other violent related crimes.
	Ayamdoo	Charles Adombire	Director, Anti-Corruption, Commission on Human Rights and Administrative Justice (CHRAJ)	Providing leadership and direction in the development and implementation of anti-corruption strategies, ethics and integrity. Supervising investigators and investigations of Corruption. Providing direction for the implementation of corruption prevention initiatives including designing and implementing corruption risk assessment programmes. Leading in the investigations of allegations of corruption. Providing advice to the Commission on conflict of interest, gift rules and code of conduct for public officers. Developing strategies for combating corruption in Ghana. Training anti-corruption officers and public officers on corruption investigation, education and prevention. Preparing legal opinions, speeches, briefing notes and background papers for Commission Members. Organizing training and public awareness programmes on corruption for public Officers, C50s and the general public.
	Appiagyei-Atua	Kwadwo	Senior Lecturer, University of Ghana, Legon,	I teach Public International Law, International Human Rights Law, Law of Diplomacy and International Institutions and African Human Rights and

		Accra, Ghana	Administrative Systems, Research Methodology. Serves as the General Editor of the University of Ghana Law Journal (UGU); Member, Editorial Board, Universitas; Member, Disciplinary Committee for Junior and Senior Staff; Law Faculty representative on the Faculty of Social Science Academic Board; External Affairs Coordinator Law Faculty and Moot Court Coach/Coordinator as well as Serving as thesis supervisor and student advisor.
Quayson	Richard Ackom	Deputy Commissioner, Commission on Human Rights & Administrative Justice(Chraj)	Responsible for the commission's multiple Mandate like human rights and administrative justice and anti-corruption. Directly responsible for the commission's anti-corruption work and public Education and sensitization; Policy direction of the commission's anti-corruption Work. Developing policy guide for anti-corruption work for the country and for Main streaming integrity and ethics in the public service. Responsible for all anti-corruption investigations of the commission(case and Systemic investigations). Initiating and implementing preventative mechanisms for combating corruption. Developing and implementing strategies for combating corruption. Training and building capacity of anti-corruption officers/campaigners/cso's on Corruption prevention and investigation. Advising government and parliament and public services on corruption prevention and building the capacity of the public to fight corruption and hold public services accountable. Responsible for chraj's collaboration with other anti-corruption agencies and Bodies(international and local).
Essel	Samuel		Day to day administration of financial intelligence Centre. National coordinator on aml/cft measures Giaba national correspondent(ambassador)- liaison between Ghana and Giaba. Participation in international fora-fatf plenary,

Batidam	Daniel	Governance Advisor, President of the Republic of Ghana	Giaba plenary. Principal advisor to the Government of Ghana on governance. Work with institutions related to Rule of law, Anti-Corruption, Human Rights and Governance in general and provide the President updates on the functioning of these institutions. In addition, I am the representative of the Office of the President on the Ten-Year National Anti- Corruption Action Plan (NACAP) a blue print for combating in Ghana and take part in devising Measures for its effective implementation. Participate in the UNCAC related meetings and Sessions conducted in Vienna, such as the Implementation Review Group and the Intergovernmental Working Groups on Prevention, and Asset Recovery.
Tsar	Justice Adegbe Vao	Deputy Director (Intel), Government of Ghana (Economic and Organised Crime Office)	Investigations, case management ,intelligence management, general administration and operations as directed by the executive director. From 1984 to date ,have been involved in intelligence and security management activities within the national security system. Within the period held various management positions in the regions of Ghana and at national level.
Aidoo	Tony	Snr. Presidential Adviser and Head of Policy Evaluation and Oversight., Government of Ghana	Responsible for the creation and management of a National Data Bank on all Government policies, Programmes and projects being implemented by Ministries, Departments and Agencies and, Metropolitan, Municipal and District Assemblies. Monitoring and Evaluation (M&E) of the performance of mdas and mmdas, relative to their implementation of Government policies, programmes and projects. Submission of periodic report and advisory opinion to the President based on the M&E Outcomes.

Whitlall	Joseph	Deputy Commissioner, Head of State and President of Republic of Ghana	Together with two other Commissioners constitutes the governing council of the Commission on Human and Administrative Justice. Responsible for setting out the policies of the Commission and at the same time as Executive appointee also responsible for the implementation of the functions of the Commission as laid out by the 1992 Constitution and any other law. Some of these functions include Investigating and submitting reports with recommendations on allegations and suspicions of Corruption and the misappropriation of public funds by public officials; investigating infractions Against the code of conduct for public officials and conflict of interest allegations; investigating and Reporting on human rights violations and administrative injustices by public officials and other private Bodies.
Badu	Stella Otema	Chief State Attorney, Ministry of Justice ,Attorney General's Department	Conducts civil litigation on behalf of the Government of Ghana and this involves handling Motions, Appeals, and Substantive Court Cases. Reviews Agreements on behalf of the Government. Conducting research and writing legal memoranda. Representing Employer at workshops. Serving as member on some Government committees. Processing and settling claims on behalf of Government. Member of the Government Negotiating team on Petroleum Agreements.