Climate change is multiplying trafficking risks
(Source: UNODC Global Report on Trafficking in Persons 2022)
Climate change is increasing vulnerability to trafficking by multiplying risks of

- people becoming internally displaced by weather-induced natural disasters

- cross border migration to escape climate-induced poverty

End Human Trafficking
unodc.org/blueheart