Questions	Answers
Please tick the small box if there are written rules regulating the way in which criminal (police) data are recorded 4.b1	<input type="checkbox"/>
When is the data collected for the inclusion in the statistics? Please provide just one answer It is important to determine when the data collection takes place in the criminal justice process. As regards the police statistics, great difference exists depending on whether data are recorded when the offence is reported to the police (input) or at a later date, for example when the police have completed their investigation (output).	4.b2 1 <input type="radio"/> When the offence is reported to the police 4.b2 2 <input type="radio"/> After the report to the police, but before investigation 4.b2 3 <input type="radio"/> After investigation
Please tick the small box if a principal offence rule is applied It is essential to know the counting system used in cases of simultaneous offences. For example, how do statistics reflect the case of an offender who in the course of theft also causes damage to property? Where a principal offence rule is applied, the statistics will show one offence. Where there is no such rule, there will be a separate count for each offence	<input type="checkbox"/>
How are multiple offences counted? Please provide just one answer	4.b4 1 <input type="radio"/> As one offence 4.b4 2 <input type="radio"/> As two or more offences 4.b4 3 <input type="radio"/> Uncertain
How is an offence committed by more than one person counted? Please provide just one answer	4.b5 1 <input type="radio"/> As one offence 4.b5 2 <input type="radio"/> As two or more offences 4.b5 3 <input type="radio"/> Uncertain
Please tick the small box if data recording methods have been substantially modified during the reporting period 4.b6	<input type="checkbox"/>
