UNODC Ukraine 2023 in a snapshot

The UNODC Office in Ukraine supports the Government’s reform efforts and works to mitigate the risks associated with drugs, corruption, and organized crime and contribute to Ukraine’s sustainable development, recovery and rule of law.

Top News

Support continuity in HIV and drug prevention treatment and care services

Strengthening Ukraine’s anti-corruption ecosystem

Investigate and prosecute financial crimes

UNODC partners with the Ministry of Justice to support action on prison crisis

Enhance trade facilitation and support for open and secure borders

UNODC’s effective action against illicit trafficking in cultural property

Trafficking among Ukrainians on the move

Click here
Support continuity in HIV and drug prevention treatment and care services

War and conflict lead to displacement, can compromise national and regional infrastructure and exacerbate health care deficiencies for displaced and host populations. UNODC supports the national response on HIV that is respectful of human rights and based on evidence, and is able to meet the current humanitarian and health challenges...

read more

Investigate and prosecute financial crimes

UNODC experts trained Ukrainian officers to strengthen their investigative response through preventive and proactive investigative methods to combat corruption...

read more

Strengthen Ukraine's anti-corruption ecosystem

Corruption prevalence and distrust in institutions are key obstacles to economic recovery, attracting foreign investment and enabling the success of the recovery effort. UNODC cooperates with Ukraine for the application of the anti-corruption standards, the identification of the current and emerging corruption risks, as well as the development and implementation of effective anti-corruption initiatives to support the government’s commitment to the reconstruction’s integrity, transparency and good governance...

Follow the UNCAC Campaign @UNODCRPOEE

S-O-S Initiative

Discover UNODC-WHO ‘S-O-S initiative’ to train CSOs on emergency management of opioid overdose...

read more

Our Mission: implementing crucial measures to have a greater impact on affected populations, while taking measure to prevent stigma and discrimination and enable respect for human rights.

UNODC OFFICE IN UKRAINE
Institutional capacity of Ukraine’s prison and probation systems

Ukrainian and international stakeholders met to discuss how best to support prison and probation reforms that can lead to compliance with international standards and EU obligations, while enabling the prison and probation systems to respond to additional challenges... read more

Enhance trade facilitation and support for open and secure borders

As part of their cooperation with the Ukrainian government, the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime and the United Nations Office for Project Services are committed to helping Ukraine strike a balance between the need to maintain security against cross-border criminal threats and the free movement of people, goods, services and trade... read more

UNODC partners with the Ministry of Justice to support action on prison crisis

To ensure the practical application of the Nelson Mandela Rules in Ukraine and to promote the safety, security, and humane treatment of prisoners, the Deputy Minister of Justice requested UNODC, the custodian of the Rules, to assist Ukraine with the development of guidance materials and tools on good prison management... read more

UNODC
Make Ukraine safer from drugs, organized crime and corruption

www.unodc.org/ukraine
unodc-ukraine@un.org
@UNODCPOEE

UNODC in Ukraine
Make Ukraine safer from drugs, organized crime and corruption

In the face of unprecedented circumstances, the implementation of the Nelson Mandela Rules demands resilience. However, with the collective support and collaboration of our national and international partners, we hold steadfast confidence in achieving success and making a positive change.

Yevhen Silich,
Galyna Zhytynyk,
Prison Service of Ukraine
UNODC’s support for action against illicit trafficking in cultural property

In order to support the government’s commitment in preventing and combating trafficking of cultural property, it is crucial to promote supply-chain integrity and stop the illicit trade in and sale of cultural property, through criminal-justice responses including anti-money-laundering actions that could disrupt organized criminal networks... read more

Addressing the challenges faced by victims of human trafficking among Ukrainians on the move

Law enforcement and criminal justice agencies play an essential role in identifying victims of trafficking, referring victims for protection services, and ensuring that justice is delivered by developing appropriate and timely criminal justice responses to address human trafficking... read more

Our Mission: promoting that the rights and needs of all victims of trafficking are an essential element in ensuring an effective criminal justice response.

UNODC OFFICE IN UKRAINE

SEASON’S GREETINGS 2024