ABOUT

The Austrian Ministry of Justice together with UN Women Serbia, the Austrian Embassy Belgrade, Austrian and Serbian governmental and non-governmental institutions are joining forces to foster exchange of knowledge and experience, and to enhance cooperation in the field of combating violence against women and girls. Based on research, monitoring and evaluation of existing legal frameworks, policies and practice, the event will focus on the implementation, lessons learned and challenges in the daily practice of fighting violence against women. We will discuss practical aspects of protecting victims/survivors before the court as well as multisectoral cooperation.

Special event organised by Austria and UN Women Serbia during the 30th Session of the United Nations Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (CCPCJ)
