

Ian Tennant: Alliance of NGOs on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice

Ian is Fund Manager and Vienna Multilateral Representative at the GI-TOC, where he is actively engaged in supporting civil society individuals and organizations working to counter the damaging effects of organized crime around the world. He has been elected for a second term as a Vice Chair of the NGO Alliance on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice. Ian has previously served as a member of the UK's Permanent Mission to the UN in Vienna, and as a political consultant in the private sector in the UK. He has authored several publications on the UN response to transnational organized crime, and contributed articles to academic publications on similar issues. He holds a MA in Contemporary British Politics from Goldsmiths College, University of London.