

Ms. Irina D'almeida, Senior Gender Affairs Expert, Capacity Building & Training Directorate, INTERPOL

Irina Bratosin D'Almeida is Senior Gender Affairs Expert in the Capacity Building and Training Directorate at INTERPOL. Before joining the organization, Ms D'Almeida worked as a Gender Adviser in the European Union civilian crisis management mission in Palestine - EUPOL COPPS where she was advising the justice sector institutions and the Palestinian Civilian Police on the implementation of effective gender mainstreaming strategies.

Irina is a civil servant of the European Union where she worked for the Women's Rights and Gender Equality Committee in the European Parliament and before that she served as a Senior Associate, Gender, Peace and Security at the European Peacebuilding Liaison Office. Ms. D'Almeida has over a decade of experience with various governmental and non-governmental organisations working on issues related to women, peace and security, peacebuilding, conflict prevention and EU foreign affairs, in particular in North Africa and the Middle East as well as Southeast Asia. She has an academic background in political science and international relations and speaks fluently English, French and Romanian and has good working knowledge of Spanish.