

SIDE EVENT: 65th Session of the Commission on Narcotic Drugs

Long-Term Effects of Intra-Uterus Exposure to Synthetic Opioids

Organizer: UNODC Liaison Office in Geneva

Co-Sponsors: Canada
UNODC Laboratory and Scientific Service (LSS)

Moderator: Ms. Asma Fakhri, Programme Management Officer,
LSS, UNODC
Ms. Elizabeth Sáenz, Liaison Officer (UNODC-WHO) Geneva

Leaving no infant behind in the shadow of the opioid crisis - Addressing the need for comprehensive, multi-disciplinary responses to neonatal abstinence syndrome related to prenatal exposure to synthetic opioids. Join us for an engaging expert discussion on the health, educational and legal needs of infants born with neonatal exposure to synthetic opioids.

Opening remarks

Ms. Carol Anne Chenard
Director of Office of Controlled Substances, Health Canada

Panelists

Dr. Ju-Lee Oei
Professor, University of Sydney, Australia

Dr. Mishka Terplan
*Scientific Advisory Council, FORE Foundation &
Friends Research Institute, United States of America*

Dr. Hendrée Jones
*Professor, University of North Carolina,
United States of America*

Ms. Lauren Dicair
*Clinical Social Worker,
United States of America*

Thursday, 17th March, 2022

08.00 - 08.50 AM (CET)

Join the meeting here