

UNODC ANTI-CORRUPTION ACTIVITIES 2018 IN SOUTHEAST-ASIA IN NUMBERS

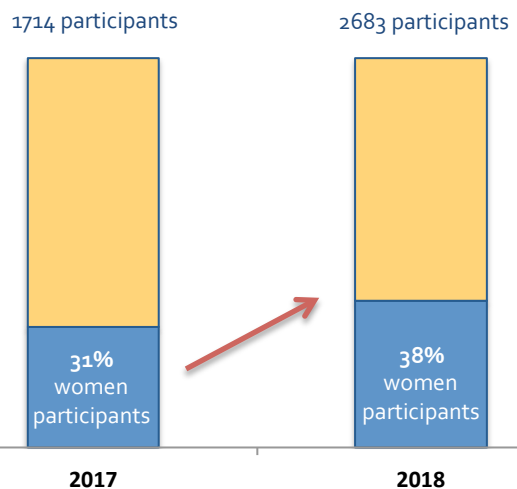

The Anti-Corruption Sub-Programme works with all 10 Member States in the ASEAN region and Timor-Leste to support the implementation of the UNCAC and to enhance the capacities of the national anti-corruption bodies and all concerned stakeholders through the provision of technical assistance and training programmes.

From January to December 2018, 39 activities were implemented reaching 2,683 beneficiaries, among which 38% were women beneficiaries.

Activities implemented per types of beneficiaries

Women participation in UNODC Anti-Corruption Technical Assistance 2017-2018 in Southeast-Asia

Main topics covered in training workshops in 2018 include:

- Financial investigations and international cooperation (6)
- UNCAC implementation (5)
- Business integrity (4)
- Assets declaration systems (4)
- Corruption as an enabler of other transnational organized crimes (terrorism, smuggling of migrants and human trafficking, environmental crimes (4)
- Public procurement (3)
- Code of conduct for public officials/judges (2)
- Innovative tools (2)
- Complaints mechanisms and effective protection of reporting persons (2)
- Gender and corruption (1)
- Police integrity (1)
- Assets recovery (1)
- The use of digital evidence (1)
- Anti-corruption strategy (1)
- Monitoring and reporting corruption for CSOs (1)